There is a JACKSON KELLY and wife ELIZA, daughter AMANDA, and son WILLIAM on the 1850 Fairfield County Census. William is listed as being one year old and was born in Fairfield County. William M. Kelly (RIN #127) was born 25 Mar 1855 according to his death certificate and his parents were listed as Jackson Kelly and Eliza Branham. I do not have proof he had a sister Amanda.

!Could this William possibly be the William on the 1850 Census even though there is an age difference?

!There is also a Jackson Kelly on the Richmond County, Georgia, 1850 Census.

!Since the Fairfield County Census was not taken until October, could the family have moved between June and October????

!Believe this Jackson Kelly to be the same Jackson Kelly who entered the Port of Philadelphia on 7 Jul 1831 aboard the Bark Lark, Nationality: Great Britain, he was six years of age (born 1825). Reference: National Archives: K6696-A-360. Family hearsay is that the Kelly family came into

Name:Jackson KELLY-138 Birth:

Charleston, SC, via ship, from the Isle of Man. No proof as yet.

Have also heard that a member of the early Kelly family went to Georgia and later came back to SC (Jackson Kelly)???
