

John Michael Cox

John Cox and Heather Sanders of Winnsboro announce the birth of their son, John Michael Cox, who was born at 9:01 a.m. on Dec. 24, 1998 at the Richland Memorial Hospital.

At birth, he weighed four pounds, 15 ounces and was 17 inches long.

The paternal grandparents are Phillip and Linda Branham of Winnsboro and Roy Cox of Florence.

The maternal grandparents are Carolyn Sanders of Winnsboro and the late Mike Sanders.

The great-grandparents are Hugh L. and Joan E. Croxton, Ruby Sanders, all of Winnsboro, and Bill and Joanne Wilson of Florence.

the battle of Jericho, Jos sent two spies to Jericho.

The Church Calendar is a service provided by Herald-Independent for churches in Fairfield County. Items must be submitted in writing by Friday at 5 p.m. the following edition.

First Methodist Church Winnsboro to offer a series of Sunday night studies of popular Andy Griffith Show. Each Sunday evening in February members and friends will gather in the Social Hall at 7:00 p.m. to view a tape of an episode of the Andy Griffith Show. This is not for adults only; families are urged to bring their children to this series as we laugh and learn from A. J. Opie, Aunt Bee and Barney Fife. Won't you plan to join us for a special time together?

Sunday, Jan. 17, Black Baptist Church began its ministry at Fairfield Manor Nursing Home, Ridgeway, Ga. The speaker was Minister Merrick Turner and services were conducted by F. Earnest Jones, pastor of the church. Minister Merrick Turner will be in charge of services each first Sunday beginning at 2:30 p.m.

•Saint John's Episcopal Church in Winnsboro continues...