

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

O B I T U A R Y

Sylvia Strothers Crosby was born November 16, 1908 in Blair, South Carolina. She was the eldest daughter of the late Dave Strothers and Annie Simelton Strothers.

Sylvia was introduced to Jesus Christ at an early age. She was the eldest member of Upper Hope Station Church where she served in many capacities. She was the Mother of her great church, president of the missionary board, Sunday School teacher, usher, and a member of the Senior Choir. Sylvia served diligently as a soldier for Christ until she became ill and re-located to New York with her daughter. There she became a member of St. Luke's Community Church, still standing on the promises of God - to serve Him to the end. Sylvia was a member of the AP & B Lodge # 31 and an order of the Eastern Star, Silver Hill Chapter # 244.

Sylvia was the wife of the late Irvin Crosby and the mother of Annie Lee Crosby Maye. Although she birthed only one child, God blessed Sylvia with a special gift that many admired her for. To many she was known as "Mama" or "Sister" because of her gentle loving touch. Sylvia nurtured and molded numerous children into fine adults.

On January 16, 1998, her Lord and Savior saw fit to bring her home after a job well done. She leaves behind one daughter, Annie Lee Crosby Maye and son-in-law Riley Maye of Brooklyn, New York; four grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; one brother, Simelton Strothers of Baltimore, MD; three sisters, Louise Young of Baltimore, MD, Wilhemenia Roseborough of Fayetteville, NC and Lillie A. Mayfield of Lancaster, SC; two sisters-in-law, Melva Wilson of Charlotte, NC and Annie Strothers of Baltimore, MD; one brother-in-law, Dave Young of Baltimore, MD; a host of nieces and nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends.
