Notes for GEORGE CREIGHTON TAYLOR:

He was born on a Sunday night, the day was very warm and the temperature dropped to 17 degrees that night. He weighed 7 lbs. and 5 1/2 ozs. It snowed the week-end after he was born and his daddy and Willie went fishing. He was 4 months old when I went back to work and his grandparents kept him, Lona Mae Taylor and Charlie Taylor until he started kindergarten at Faith Baptist Church in Chester. They spoiled him to death, they let him do whatever he wanted. His grandfather (Charlie Taylor) called him Bo-Cat. We nick-named him Hot-Rod.

He received his Kindergarten Diploma on the 26th day of May, 1981. His teacher was Catherine L. Weber. He continued education at Faith Baptist Church until he started 7th grade at Chester Jr. High. He went to Chester Jr. High for 7th and 8th grade then went to Chester Sr. High. He graduated Chester Sr. High June 3, 1993. He was given a Bible at Cool Branch Baptist church May 30, 1993. He went to Wintrop College for 1 year.

Creighton and Lisa got married on November 14, 1998. It was a bad day it was rainy. They spent their first night in their house and left for their honeymoon on Saturday driving to Florida where they got on a cruiseship and went on a cruise to Cayman Islands and Mexico where they were gone for a week.
