

Willie Davis

BLYTHEWOOD - Willie Davis, 64, died Friday, April 21.

Services conducted by the Rev. Tommy Williams were held Wednesday, April 26 at Macedonia Baptist Church in Ridgeway. Burial followed in Carolina Memorial Gardens Cemetery.

Pallbearers were nephews.

A native of Blythewood, he was born July 24, 1935, the son of Mary Davis Lawhorn and Sammie Jamison.

He was a logger.

Surviving are his wife, Patsy Robertson Davis of Blythewood; four sisters, Strannie Bell of Blythewood, and Ann Banks, Christine Smith and Mary Ford, all of Columbia; and six brothers, the Rev. Curtis Boykins of Sanford, NC, Joe L. Lawhorne of Lancaster, PA, Woodrow Lawhorne of Washington, DC, Wardell Lawhorne and Willie J. Lawhorne, both of Blythewood, and James E. Lawhorne of Columbia.

Gibson's Funeral Services was in charge of the arrangements.

HERALD INDEPENDENT 5/4/2000