Arrived from Ireland, Wednesday 6 January, 1773, on ship "Lord Dunlace":
Alexander Douglass received by petition 300 acres in Craven County, S.C.,
South side of Black Creek; from N.C. line to Seewee Creek (now Awendaw)
-emptying into Bull's Bay. Bordered by, John Beard; surveyed 19 May 1773,
"Order of Council" for Samuel, William, Margaret, and Elizabeth Douglass, 17 June 1774.

" (c) Darlington County

P.F. (Platt Folder), Pre-Revolutionary plats # 498

Note by compiler:

This seems more than a coincidence since the children of "our Alexander" carry similar names (Samuel, William, Margaret or Mollie).
It was common during these times to sell their land and buy into another county.

Please advise compiler if any additional information is known or found in the future.

A James Douglas fought in the Revolution in the S.C. Militia.
 He was born in Ireland in 1754 and died in S.C. in 1825. His wife was Jane, they had a daughter Agness(Nancy) who married a John McCardell: and a son Robert, who married Ruth Perry.

Also: Thomas Douglas- No. S37895- fought in the Revolutionary war around 1791 to 1796 along with Randall Douglass No. S43508. Both were in S.C.
 No connection has been made as of this writing between these men and our original Alexander Douglass.

HISTORY SHEET

Surname: Douglass

Given name: Alexander

Date of record: 16 March 1975

Source: Stone Mance Church Cemetery

The old "Stone Mance Presbyterian Church" is located six mile North of Winnsboro, S.C. on highway 34 (Newberry Highway) and approximately one mile West: or what is known to us at this writing is "behind Lemmon Turner's Store".

Preaching was held in this area at a Robertson home in 1780 until the church was built. The church was disbanded in 1892 for the new church which is now Lebanon Presbyterian Church.

This Stone Mance Cemetery is where the original Alexander Douglass is buried. His wife Grissell (Grace) is buried with him, also his son- Charles Brown Sr. who was the father of Thomas Goulding Douglass. Another son, James, is buried here- the uncle who gave Thomas G. the home place now occupied by Dr. John Douglass. Two children of Charles Brown Douglass are buried here, also Mary, who never married.

" D'OGlaz, Dhuglass, Douglassi, de Douglas, Douglas & Douglass "

" D O U G L A S S "

Surname: DOUGLASS

Given name:

SINCE 770 A.D.

Date of record: 31 October 1976

Source: Scottish Surnames, by Clifford Sims, Baltimore, Md. 1962
Library, Augusta, Ga.

In the year 770, Solvathius, King of Scotland, obtained a victory over Donald Bain of the Western Isles, by the assistance of a man unknown to him. After the battle, being desirous to see one who had done him so signal a service, he was pointed out to him with these words: "SHOLTO DHUGLASS" (behold that swathy man).

One of this family, Sir William Douglas, entered into the service of Charlemagne and was the founder of the family of Douglassi in Tuscany. Sir James de Douglas took the heart of Robert Bruce to the Holy Land, to commemorate what his descendants have ever since borne a crowned heart in their arms. Before 1329 the arms were azure, three mullets argent.
