Eddie,

Trev and Willie Sherrod (bessiems@yahoo.com)

Here is Trev's address (copying to her here also) for the researcher seeking Douglass/Douglas information. She has digitized much information and has been already sending out to the other man looking for information on the family.

Good morning,

I just finished talking with Miss Pelham and she suggested that I send you an e-mail requesting the following family trees for the Douglass families plus information on Albion. She said that you could scan and send the information requested in an e-mail.

ALEXANDER & GRISELL DOUGLASS (1760 to 1822 & 1843)
(Both buried in the Old Lebanon Presbyterian Cemetery)

ALEXANDER & JENNETT (SIMONTON) DOUGLASS (1799 to 1863 & 1872)
(Both buried in New Hope ARP Cemetery)

ALEXANDER SCOTT & MARY E. (BYERS) AND SALLIE M. (McCANTS) DOUGLASS (1833)
(Alexander & Sallie (McCants) buried in Sion Presbyterian Cemetery)
Note: I am still looking for information on Mary E. (Byers) Douglass

She said that she had received my check for the Cemetery Books and would remind you to process.

Thanking you in advance. Gene T. Ziervogel in Jacksonville, Florida

Attention Eddie,

Good morning. My name is Gene Ziervogel and I live in Jacksonville, Florida. I e-mailed you about a week ago regarding the Douglass genealogy. Yesterday I had a lengthy conversation with Miss Pelham. She gave so much information that became confused. She did tell me to e-mail you and ask for your help. I do not have any thing specific at this time but as soon as my social security check come in I will be ordering the three volumns of the cemetery books. Do you want a personal check or would you prefer a money order. Who do I make payable and what is your mailing address. If you have any "family trees" on Alexander Scott Douglass either of 1799 or 1833 I would like copies of them. In my research if I need any information you might have I will e-mail or contact you by phone. Thank you for your assistance. My daughters mother was a Douglass. Her Great Grandfather 3 times removed was Alexander Scott Douglass.

Thank you for your assistance.

Subject: Dr. Robert Douglas information in Fairfield/Chester

Pelham Lyles referred me to your email address - I have been searching for the parents or any additional information on Dr Robert Douglas who lived in Chester, SC and maybe Fairfield. Born 1813 (location unknown) and married Hannah Cornwell(Cornwall?) in 1838. Children: Eli, James, William Leslie(died at 6 months), and Robert George Douglas - born 1844. Robert George is my 3GGfather. Specifically, I am looking for parents or place of birth for Robert Douglas.

I live 6 hours away and my husband is now disabled so it is extremely difficult to travel. If you have any information, please let me know. Thank you so much!

Some of the names sound like they are close kin to the Fairfield County Douglas family which settled in the New Hope/Avon area called Douglass (just south of Chester County line). I am fairly certain that the Douglasses of both counties are kin. I will forward this to the Fairfield County Genealogical Research room for checking. They are short-staffed however, with a very minimal number of volunteers available, so if you live nearby, you may just want to schedule a trip to Winnsboro to search the files that are kept there on Douglasses. The best time is on Wednesdays when the volunteers are available. Call 803-635-9811 Tuesday - Sat. for more details, however, due to the large amount of work, it is difficult to try to talk details on the phone.

Please send your email address for corresponding to fairfieldgenealogy@truvista.net.

Trev:

We don't have much of anything about Mary E. Byers, except for some peripheral guesses, in regards to Gene from Jacksonville's question. See the message way down at the bottom of this email from Doug Marion...looks like Spartanburg is the center of attention for this family, so Mary E. might be buried in Spartanburg county.

They were married in Spartanburg, and he is pictured in the History of Spartanburg (see attached picture).

i was cleaning up some of my paper and found this page - not sure if I shared or not - just in case I didn't here are the DOUGLAS's that are listed in the book: "North and South Carolina Marriage Records. page 80

DOUGLAS, Alexander S. and Mary E. BYERS, 6 November 1860, Spartanburg, SC

Here is a list of names in Landrum's "History of Spartanburg, SC". Mary E. Byers Douglass is listed, along with all the Douglass ancestors... I am guessing that the book must have a family history in it. Gene in Jacksonville might benefit from getting a copy to read, if he has not done so already.

Now here is something really interesting: Doctor John Buchanan in Winnsboro was married to Mary Byers Douglas (we called her "Miss Mary"), and she was the daughter of William Davis Douglas. So Miss Mary was apparently named after her grandmother, Mary E. Byers Douglass, wife of Alexander Scott Douglas. I never knew that Miss Mary and her brother Mr. Moultrie Douglas were related this closely to Willie's and Margie's line. Doctor John and Miss Mary were married at Saint John's Episcopal Church in Winnsboro on November 9, 1929. All of that information is in "The History of Saint John's Episcopal Church" by Sharon Goff Avery. Gene could probably read a copy of it at the Fairfield public library.

So, none of this gets to Gene's question of wanting to know more about the original Mary E. Byers Douglass...but my guess is that a lot of information could be found in Spartanburg. Maybe Doug Marion could help fill in some of the blanks.

Kiss Willie for us.

Dear Skip

I attached the photo of Alexander Jr. and Jennett Simonton Douglass.

Thanks so much for all the wonderful information. I had never seen the grand jury papers.

Alexander Scott Douglas (sometimes mistakenly listed as Alexander Simonton Douglas) was the son of Alexander Douglass, Jr. and Jennett Simonton. His photo is in the "History of Spartanburg County" However, it appears that someone has cropped the wrong photo from the composite listed in the book in your document. The caption looks like it refers to the one in your document. However, if you look closely at the sides of the page you will see small numbers beside the photos, which correspond to the numbered captions. I believe he is on the lower right, and not the left. I photoshopped him out of the composite. See what you think.

You are right. Albion was built by Alexander Douglass, Jr. It was inherited by his son, John Simonton Douglas, and then by his son William Boyce Douglas. William was not a success at farming according to one family member. He died fairly young. His youngest brother, Albert Gilmer Douglas "bought out his brothers and sisters" and owned the house. Albert was a merchant in Columbia, S.C. and used the house as a retreat. He became ill and retired his family to the house. Later, when he recovered after about 2 years, he moved to High Point, NC and sold carpet. He maintained the house and it was inherited by his 3 children, Jack, Frances and Pauline. Jack wound up with the house and was selling it when I was moving back to Chester in 1986. I wanted it, but it was not practical to live 25 miles out in the country. Marge Woods, from Clover, SC, whose second husband, Bobby Woods was descended from John Douglas, the brother of Alexander, Jr. bought the house and restored it beautifully. I think she and her daughter still own the house. Thanks for the Fairfield Sketchbook write ups.

I think Alexander Douglass, Jr. would be the uncle of Thomas Goulding. Charles B. Douglas would be Alexander, Jr's brother. Right?

The pictures are great. I got some information that I had never seen.

Keep it coming. This is great!

Doug

Doug:

I am attaching a few things to this message; you may already have all or some of it. The New Hope section of Fairfield County is described in Mr. Julian Bolicks's book A Fairfield Sketchbook. The Douglas homeplaces Balwearie and Albion are pictured and described. Since Albion was built around 1840, it must have been owned by your Alexander Douglas Jr. Is the attached write up on Lieutenant Alexander S. Douglass your Alex. Douglas Jr.? Alexander Douglas is listed on page 239 of the attached 1800 census. Doctor Thomas Goulding Douglas was the nephew of your Alexander Douglass Jr; he lived at Albion. He is pictured on horseback. Also attached is a picture of the ruins of The Old Jackson Creek Church, a.k.a. the Stone Manse Church, where Alexander Douglass "The Immigrant" is buried (picture of his grave also attached). That's my family in front of the ruins, L to R – my wife Margie, our daughter in law Amber, and our sons Douglas & Anc. Finally...Alexander Douglass was on the 1820 grand jury described in the three .JPG attachments.

Hope some of this adds to your collection.

Doug:

Thanks for your message. Along which Douglas(s) line do you belong? Margie descends from Alexander, Charles Brown, Thomas Goulding, James E. Sr., James E. Jr, and her father James E. III. Which is the common ancestor?

I will send you some items...let me know where the common generation is. Willie and Trev have a box of Douglas pictures. I understand that Gregg Douglass in Winnsboro (son of George) has done a lot of Douglas genealogy, and apparently is the expert. I have never talked with him about it, and we need to. I regret that I do not have his email address.

Here is an interesting source: a branch of the family moved to Florida, and a gentleman in that line, Robby Douglas, has done a remarkable job of setting up an electronic data base for the Douglas(s) family tree. His email address is listed above. Here is the page for Alexander Douglass, which is a good place to start: <http://double-helix-geek.com/individual.php?pid=I47&ged=genes-douglas2.ged> . I guess we all ought to go add our family members to make it more complete.

I try to keep and sort family information for later generations...so we would really appreciate copies of the Douglas things that you might be willing to share.

Thanks,

Dear Trev and Willie, Skip and Margie,

Pelham Lyles at the Fairfield Co museum gave me your emails to contact about a Douglas family history project that I am working on. I think that both of you have corresponded with my mother, Ann Davidson Marion in the past.

I am compiling family history and photographs for a Douglas family photo book for my family for Christmas 2012. I am trying to include information and photos of direct ancestors, and their brothers and sisters; including spouses, tombstones, churches, homes, etc. I have been collecting since I was a teenager, and that's a long time ago. But, I am trying to exhaust all relatives to see if they have anything that would add to my collection.

I see that both of you are descended from Charles Brown Douglas and his wife Sarah Jane Crosby. I know that Charles B. died in 1851, but his wife did not die until 1884. Does anyone have a photograph, portrait, etc. of either of them? I have a picture of his tombstone at Old Lebanon, but did not see hers. Is she buried there too? Does anyone have a picture of their home?

Can you think of any other pictures that might be useful to me?

I'm headed down to Winnsboro to the museum tomorrow to see what Pelham has that might be of use to me.

HERE RESTS IN HOPE
THE BODY OF
A CHRISTIAN WIFE AND MOTHER
JANE DOUGLASS
WIFE OF
JOHN DOUGLASS
WHO WAS BORN DEC. 2ND 1793
AND DIED JULY 2ND 1877.

Her faith was in Him, who is the Resurrection and the Life. Her Hope that when Christ who is our Life, shall appear, then would she also appear with Him in glory. Who shall change our vile body and fashion it like unto his glorious body.

This mortal shall put on immortality.

Death is swallowed up in victory.

L. G. Schorb.

WALTER W. WOOD

WALTER W. WOOD

ALBERT GILMER DOUGLAS
BORN FAIRFIELD COUNTY, S. C.

DECEMBER 24, 1871

DIED HIGH POINT, N. C.

JULY 13, 1945
