Harold E. Douglas, Jr., more affectionately known as "Pops", died in his home on October 3, 2009 surrounded by his grandchildren. A son of the late Harold E. Douglas, Sr. and Mary Lee Bell Douglas, he was born on March 12, 1922. He was a beloved son, brother, daddy, Granddaddy, great granddaddy, uncle, cousin, and friend.

He served in the Navy during World War II. His long time service to organizations within our community such as Lions Club, American Legion, Jaycees, Masons and Jamil Temple speaks volumes about the person he was. Mr. Douglas was a well respected merchant as the owner of Carolina Furniture Company in Winnsboro. He was a Bail Bondsman, Real Estate Broker and a member of the Chamber of Commerce. He was honest, trustworthy and lived his life with the utmost integrity. Pops' kindness to his family and friends is what will be remembered and cherished the most. It was all of these qualities that made him such a wonderfully, extraordinary human being. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

The family extends sincere thanks and heartfelt appreciation to Vickie Burrell for her love, care, and friendship as his caregiver during the past several years. Along with Ms. Burrell, they also thank Sarah Gibbes, and Pearley Lyles for the special care of Mr. Douglas during the past few weeks. They also wish to express their thanks to his brother Tommy and wife, Carole for their love and support as his neighbors and friends. With the love from these wonderful people, family, and Hospice Care, "Pops" is at home with the Lord and now at peace.
