

JAMES E. DOUGLAS

Special to The State.

1935
Chestter, Nov. 13.—James E. Douglas, 76, former merchant and cotton factor of Blackstock, was found dead in the barn of his home tonight. Examination showed him to have been victim of a heart attack and an inquest was deemed unnecessary.

Mr. Douglas is survived by his wife, Mrs. Walter Hicklin Douglas; three sons, Alec and James Douglas of Rocky Mount, N. C., and John Douglas, Washington, D. C.; one daughter, Miss Bessie Belle Douglas, Blackstock; one brother, W. S. Douglas, Blackstock.

Mr. Douglas was a Mason and a member of the Presbyterian church.