Thank you Eddie.

Yes we have Clark Co covered pretty thoroughly with descendants who are part of our DNA study. It's South Carolina that we need to know more about.

Hello Virginia,

I was looking back over your request and found the following:
Elias Dukes and Emily Elkins Dukes are in the 1810 Fairfield County, SC Census, and in the 1820 Kershaw County, SC Census, but then in 1830 Clarke County, AL.
You may want to check Alabama and/or Clarke County, AL sources. Other not-verified sources say he was born about 1785 in Kershaw County, SC and died about 1840 in Clarke County, AL.
Hope this helps.....

Eddie

Hello Virginia,

We did check our resource collection for Elias Dukes as well.
There are a few early 1806, 1820 deed sales from a William Dukes but not an Elias.

My wife is from Orangeburg County and there a lot of Dukes down there.
I checked our very limited Orangeburg County records and did not find an Elias.
You may want to check with the Orangeburg German Swiss Genealogical Society.

SC Archives Online Archives has a few Dukes but not Elias.

Eddie,

I believe you are saying your volunteers work for pay.

Our Duke DNA Study group has 55 people now but no funds, so please put us at the bottom of your request list in case you ever run out of paying customers. We do not need hardcopies of anything - only softcopy so we could share it with the group.

Thank you,

Virginia Winslett
