PUBLICATION GUIDELINES FOR THE HERALD

The staff of The Carolina Herald and Newsletter gladly accepts contributions for publication. All items should be sent to The Carolina Herald, c/o SC Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 492, Columbia, SC 29202-0492. If you have submitted articles that have not been published in the past, please resubmit them to the staff for consideration. This publication is of and for our members and we need your contributions to continue producing a worthy publication. Submissions are accepted from both members and non-members. We prefer them to be on disk in Word, Word Perfect or Word Pad, however, typed or handwritten articles are also accepted for publication. Remember we are all volunteers and are working to produce the best publication possible for you, our members.

PUBLICATIONS COMPETITION

The Publications Competition is divided into six categories. Within the first four categories, there are two divisions based on a Chapter's membership. The two divisions are those Chapters with 100 or fewer members and those Chapters with greater than 100 members. The nomination deadline for 2001 awards is July 14, 2001. Entries must be received by this date. An entry form must accompany each entry. A panel of three judges with no affiliation with the S.C.G.S. will judge the nominations in each category. The S.C.G.S. President or his designee will present awards, consisting of a plaque or a certificate, at the Fall S.C.G.S. Annual Meeting. Awards are based upon nominations and may not be presented in each category each year.
