HUSBAND - William EDRINGTON-102

NOTE: It is believed this 'William' is the one known as the 'gentleman Justice of Stafford County' and who was married to Betty Helm or Helms whose father was a member of the House of Burgesses. He was one of the three sons of Christopher Edrington (1672-1738).

NOTE: Note from a letter from Clair Utt of Winfield, KS., dated April 1994: "From CALENDAR OF VIRGINIA STATE PAPERS, by Palmer: List of Justices of Stafford Co. that have taken oaths and those that have refused (among others appear names Edrington). Also from Claire, via Bill Cheatham of Crofton, MD: The Register of Overwharton Parish of Stafford C., VA, 1723-1758, pg 31, #6: "Negro Slaveholders in Overwharton Parish, WILLIAM EDRINGTON had a slave born or baptized first in 1745."

NOTE: See also the chapter on the 'Ederington Family' in THE HISTORY OF FAIRFIELD COUNTY, SOUTH CAROLINA, by William Ederington.

WIFE - Elizabeth 'Betty' HELM-213

NOTE: Betty's name might be HELM, HELMES, or HELMS. Letter from Golda dated 7 Oct 1991 has figured her age at about 18 years old at the time of marriage to William (b 1712)...maybe 16. That would put her birth in the 1720-1722 era.

From a letter from Bill Edrington in Tennessee, dated 22 August 1991: "Old William E., the J.P. of Stafford Co ca 1715-20 --- ca 1769-70, son of Christopher II, md. Betty Helm (obligated to be a sister of old Lynaugh Helm). Also old William's sister, Hester md. said Helm, so we have a double connection of sorts."

CHILDREN: SLC LDS GEN LIB has FS#032998, which has the birthdates of 5 of the William/Betty children listed on the Overwharton Episcopal Parish Record.

NOTE: [See data on land deal with Elizabeth, Mary, Henry, and James Davis, copied in "NOTES" under name of MARY (EDRINGTON) DAVIS. RIN # 120 (PAF data of LKE)].

Other marriages:

1778 John DAVIS-621

MRIN: 689

CHILD 1 - William EDRINGTON-117

NOTES: Married: Jemima Smith Porter who died in 1815-17. Children: William, Henry, John, George, Fanny. (May be more...these were mentioned in the settlement of the estate).

On 22 Sept 1991 the following information was obtained from microfilm copies at the BYU Family History Dept of the school library. (Film #0292439, Files and Packages--1817-1835, file 3, pkg 79, Court of Probate, dated 20 Nov 1794, entitled "Conditions of sale of the personal estate of William Edrington, dec.")

"On 3d of Oct 1794 Jamima Ederington appeared before the court and took an oath to administer the estate of her deceased husband, William Ederington..."
[NOTE: She signed her name...didn't make a mark. There are several official papers in the packet revolving around the liquidation of the estate of the late husband of Jamima. Jamima, James Davis, and Henry Edrington to act as a group to inventory and appraise the estate. The name Jamima/Jamima is used alternately. "Henry" was probably the second son of William and Jamima; James Davis was probably the James Davis who married Anne, William's sister, and who died just before January 1824.]

The three people took the inventory and appraisal on 12 Oct 1794. There was then a public sale held on 24 Nov 1794. [NOTE: South Carolina had abolished the Right of Primogeniture in 1791 and an equal distribution of intestates' estates granted.]

The estate was divided between the five (5) children and the mother in an agreed fashion (Jamima---William, George, Henry, Fanny, and John). Also included were a James Talbert and a Daniel Mayberry, and it was noted that THOMAS got the old hoes and axes. [It can probably be assumed that THOMAS (b. 17 Aug 1743) was the younger brother of William...who passed away only three (3) years later, in 1797.] The estate was an ample one, with no slaves mentioned.

NOTE: Ancestral file shows Jemima Smith, b 1736 m. Edrington. Contributor: Robert Dean Lawrence, 4508 S Oak, Wichita, KS, 67217. AF also shows a birthdate for Edrington as 1736. There is other information that states that his birth was in 1741. If William, Sr was born abt 1712...then it is a time element that would fit for either 1736 or 1741.

NOTE: Reese June & Carrington have found an old hand-written chart in their files (Oct 1994) which is quite a valuable additional piece of information for current Edrington researchers. They do not know just where they picked it up. I have had much of its' contents in my data-base...but much is new to me. I will refer to it as the "Carrington Mystery Document"...and assign it the acronym CMD in my notes.

NOTE: The CMD has a date of birth of William, Jr, as being 1739, King George County, Virginia, and accredited 2 (two) wives: 1: UNKNOWN, and 2: JEMIMA PORTER followed by a (?). My own research had located only JEMIMA.

NOTE: It is believed that this 'William Edrington' is the "Gentleman Justice of Stafford County". [K-note: The CMD is known now to have originated with Bill Edrington of Memphis. (1995).]

NOTE: Will & Deed Book Q, p 239, William and Jemima sold 171 acres in Overwarten Parish, Virginia. And William and Jemima sold 112 acres to Benj Willet at Overwharton Parish in 1782. Other land sale before in 1781.

CHILD 2 - Thomas EDRINGTON-306

On Sept 22 1991 the following was obtained from the Family History Dept of the BYU Library.

!NOTE: Reference: Film #0292439, Files and Packages--1817-1835, file 3, pkg 80, "Estate of Thomas Ederington, dec., Warrant of Appointment, 1797".

John Means was appointed executor on 17 Apr 1797...and to return results to the court by 16 July 1797. John Means and Hugh Milling to be the Committee of Appraisal. Fairfield County Court had previously issued a Letter of BIR: Harry B Zabriskie of Salt Lake City is a descendent of Roxanna (Ann) Kendall through his mother's side of the family. Info regarding the birth of this individual was given to me over the telephone on 13 June 1992. The birthdate was 6 Dec 1745, as recorded on p 12i of the Overwharton Parish register. Thomas was listed on p 107 of the same record. Roxanna (Ann) was a sister to Samuel Kendall.

NOTE: There are two wives listed in this data for THOMAS EDRINGTON. (1)Rosannah Grant R=1967, and (2)Roxann or 'Ann' Kendall R=2336. Further clarification is needed if he had two wives.[sub-note: According to the STARR PAPERS, there is an entry that states that the marriage to Rosanna (?) Grant was not a good one and they parted soon after marriage..."she appears later as being alone." (Louisa Co., Va, Census of 1782-1785, Hundred 3).

NOTE:On page 263-264 of the Records of Stafford County, Virginia, there is an "Act of Agreement" dated 14 of May 1785, between THOMAS EDRINGTON and his wife, ROSANNA GRANT EDRINGTON, agreeing that '...by mutual consent' have '...finally parted'. The document reads as follows: "To all people .. I THOMAS EDRINGTON of County of Stafford in considerations of sundry disagreements, and other causes, between said Thomas Edrington and ROSANNAH his Wife, in consequence of which they have by mutual consent finally parted, and whereas Rosannah at her Marriage with Thomas was possessed with six Slaves from which numbers have since proceeded, therefore as Thomas is hereafter to be at no expence on account of said Rosanah (except maintaining her and her children from the date hereof till new years day next ensuing) after which time, she is to have all her children, and the six following Slaves (named), which Slaves together with their increase after the decease of her - Rosanah shall be equally divided among her children legally begotten. Furthermore Thomas doth hereby bind himself .. to quit all claim to said Slaves .. shall by no means of any kind of force or compulsion in order to bring his wife to dwell or cohabit with him at any time hereafter, neither shall he nor Rosanah his wife have powers to dispose of the six slaves.. this 14th May 1785. investigated the above source, but it is interesting to note that after separating (later divorce) from Rosanne GRANT on May 14 1785, he is involved with a land deal with a John KENDALL 4 months later. We find, also, that THOMAS later marries a ROXANN KENDALL...who is with him, after 1792, in Fairfield, South Carolina. One wonders what the relationship is between JOHN and ROXANN KENDALL: Bro/sis? Father/dau? or some other. Needs to be researched further.

CHILD 3 - Christopher EDRINGTON-119

NOTE: He lived for awhile down in South Carolina and had a large family. The census of 1790 shows a family of 10. But he left So. Carolina before the 1800 Census. We don't know where he went, but he may have gone back to Virginia. I haven't run across him in Kentucky. Again, he may have gone into Mississippi or Tennessee, but haven't run into him there, either.

NOTE: Christopher fought in the Revolutionary War. According to the HISTORICAL REGISTER OF VIRGINIANS IN THE REVOLUTION he was assigned to Captain John Martin's Company, Westmoreland Militia, and was appointed a 2nd Lt on August 26 1777 and then appointed a 1st Lt on May 26 1779. Further, William Ederington, when writing his HISTORY OF FAIRFIELD COUNTY, SOUTH CAROLINA tells that all his uncles (brothers of his grandfather, Francis) served in the war, which would include CHRISTOPHER.

Christopher's second wife was JEMIMA PORTER SMITH. He was her second husband. They had no children. [K-note: Could he, indeed, have married the widow of his brother, THOMAS? The statement doesn't 'jibe' with the other data. I have no idea where I might have picked this statement up].

I wrote her a letter at the above address...but the letter was returned because she no longer lived at that address and left no forwarding information.

NOTE: The following information was taken from the BULLETIN, Sept 1990, Vol VIII, Number III, Chester District Genealogical Society, serving Chester, (SC) Fairfield, Lancaster, Union and York Counties. PO Box 336, Richburg, SC 29749, pp 82-86 and continuing "1792 Tax list, Fairfield County, State Tax", p 85:

"HENRY EDRINGTON had 3 slaves, CHRISTOPHER had 2 and THOMAS had 1."

[K-note: There were no other 'Ederingtons' listed. It could be noted that the 'Ederingtons' were known as 'EDERINGTONS' in South Carolina...but the surname interchangeability can be noted by the above reference to HENRY 'EDRINGTON'].

CHILD 4 - Mary Ann (Mollie) EDRINGTON-120

NOTE: Mary Anne went to So. Carolina with her mother just before the Rev. War. Her mother married a John Davis...and Anne married his son, James. (See further material under James' name).

NOTE: According to the data bank of William Scroggins of Taylor Mill, KY, Mary was married to a _____ Furrey. This may have been a second husband.

NOTE: At this writing (Oct 1994) there is a little confusion as to the exact status/name of this child. She is listed in the DPR as "Anne", but in South Carolina she seems to be known as 'Mary'...with the nickname of 'Mollie'. Her full name, at birth, may well have been 'Mary Anne Edrington'...which would account for her being called 'Mollie'. In his book HISTORY OF FAIRFIELD COUNTY, SOUTH CAROLINA, William Ederington speaks of her indirectly when telling of her marriage to JAMES DAVIS in this fashion: "...and her (Betty's) oldest daughter married his son, James Davis." ANNE, according to the DPR (Overwharton Parish Register) would be the oldest child.

Further on in William Ederington's book, in a chapter entitled "Various Fairfield Families", p 62, he would seem to be giving some additional evidence for the above conclusion regarding her name when he says: "Colonel JONATHAN DAVIS was a son of JAMES DAVIS, who came from York County a short time after the Revolutionary War, and married Miss MOLLIE EDERINGTON." Another item might be mentioned here. Mary Ann's younger brother, FRANCIS (b-1764) named a daughter 'Mary Ann'....perhaps after her aunt.

!DEATH:Mary Anne's date of death, according to 'Bill of TN', is hard to determine from the copy I have. It appears to be in the 1840s. As near as I can make it out, it would be: Before Dec 7 1840. Her husband died in 1822.

CHILD 5 - John E EDRINGTON-569

NOTE: The following data concerning JOHN EDRINGTON was taken from a letter from Golda Brothers Edrington, dated 7 October 1991.

"John ETHRINGTON, sometimes spelled EDENTON, but in later years was spelled EDRINGTON by the children and grandchildren enlisted in Rev. War in Spottsylvania Co, Va in October 1777. He drew pay until July 1781, was a prisoner at Charleston S.C. (wonder if he knew he had 'kin' so close?) He returned home to Va and married Jan or Feb 1781 at Culpeper Co. Va: Susan Suckey. The only sure date for this man was in the pension application dated April 16, 1818 at which time he was about '66' years old. His wife was about 11 years younger than him (in one paper he said he was 68 and she was 57. She was 77 in 1841 when she applied for a widow pension. John died 31 Dec 1830. She died sometime after 1841."

From a packet of materials received 23 July 1991, concerning this John Edrington. From: Charles David Edrington of Leesburg, Ohio, Wesleyan minister.

NOTE: There is a mention of a JOHN EDRINGTON (Ederington?) in a book entitled HISTORY OF FAIRFIELD COUNTY SOUTH CAROLINA: FROM BEFORE THE WHITE MAN CAME TO 1942, by FitzHugh McMaster, the Reprint Company, Publ, Spartanburg, SC, 1980, page 120: "JOHN EDRINGTON listed as one of the members of a payroll in the company of Capt John Buchanan, 6th So Carolina, or the Continental Establishment commanded by Lt Col William Hendersen...from the 1st of August to the 1st of Dec 1779." (note: It would seem that this 'John' is not the one listed here).

MARR: According to material in the W T Cheatham Update of July 1994 "He married his sister-in-laws' (Caty Etherington?) sister, Susan Suckey (?). She resided in Highland Co, Va., 1841. (Children were listed in the pension

CHILD 7 - James EDRINGTON-122

NOTE:His birthdate is recorded in the remnants of THE REGISTER OF OVERWHARTON PARISH, 1720-1760, Book 975.526, Vol. 26k. What became of James (1756) is unknown at this time. There are some researchers who believe that he is the 'other' James (1742-1847), who was purported to die at 105 yrs of age at Trigg County, Kentucky. My own opinion, at this moment, is that they are two separate individuals...cousins. That opinion is based on the evidence that the older James most probably did have a separate existence from the year 1742. I see no need to suggest that they are one and the same person.

CHILD 8 - Francis EDRINGTON-123

NOTE: Francis married Frances Crosswhite, b. 1767, d. Apr 1829. (age: 62)
Children: Jesse, Francis, John, William, Mildred, Elizabeth, Sallie/Sarah

[These children are identified through the Federal Census reports and through the writings in the book HISTORY OF FAIRFIELD COUNTY, SOUTH CAROLINA by William Ederington...(one of the above children, who never married)...and through the surviving public records of the 1790 to 1850 period. These are noted when applicable].

On 22 Sept 1991 this researcher ran across the Will of Francis Edrington. It is located on SLC Filmstrip #0024008 (LDS Family History Library), and has the notation at the end of it that states that it was written on 10 June 1824 and proved (but not found). It was recorded on 4 Nov 1824 in Willbook #8, p 6, apt #46, file #720.

DEATH:According to a letter from Clair Utt of Winfield, Kansas, the minutes of the New Buffalo Baptist Church lists FRANCIS EDRINGTON as dying in 1829, age: 61 yrs, b in Culpeper Co., Va,...[might be wrong county.]

WILL: WILL OF FRANCIS EDRINGTON, SR.

COMMENTS:

Four of the children are mentioned in the Will: Mildred, William, Jesse, and Francis. Of these, William later said "My oldest sister, Mildred, married William Fant in 1817, and moved to Union County in 1821. He died in 1854, she afterwards lived in Fairfield with her son Dr. F.H. Fant, and died there in 18__ at the advanced age of 91". If that be true, then she must have been born around the year 1800 or before and died in the 1835-1891 time-frame. [Her age would make her one of three 'old' Edringtons that I know of so far: James (1742-1847)--who was 105, his granddaughter, Lydia...who was 93...and now Mildred at 91.]

William (the author) says of himself "I was born at my father's old homestead on Rock Creek, in Fairfield County, S.C., February 10, 1803..." and then proceeds to tell a little more of his life. The rest of the story can be found in his book. William was an educated, highly respected individual. He never married.

Francis Jr also was a bachelor.

Jesse married Elizabeth Webb and had children who have descended down to the present day. (Note: Tom Edrington of Albuquerque, N.M.)

Further information on these four children can be obtained from other records, including the Data Base of this researcher.

But whatever happened to the other children...those not mentioned in the Will?

According to William (the author) "My brother, John, moved to Kentucky about 1815 and married and died there".

"My second sister, Elizabeth, married William Vance, of Laurens County, in 1821...He died about 1827, leaving nine children, quite a charge for my sister...she moved to Mississippi about the year 1837 and died there a few years afterwards..."

"My third sister, Sallie, married David Vance, and lived near Milton, Laurens County, and died there in 1832.

Thus, one could reconstruct some basic chronological data for the seven children as follows:

Jesse	Born abt 1790	lived and died in Fairfield, S.C. d. 1863
Francis	Born btwn 1790-6	never married
John	Born btwn 1790-6	went to Ky in 1815, married, and died there.
Mildred	Born abt 1797	m. 1817 J. 1885-90 (91 years old)
William	Born 10 Feb 1803	never married lived on homestead author
Elizabeth	Born abt 1803-4	m. 1821 d. abt 1860
Sallie	Born abt 1805-+	m. 1820+ d. 1832

It is likely that Elizabeth and Sallie married brothers from Laurens County. (William and David Vance). [Laurens County joins Newberry Co. on the south and Fairfield Co. joins it on the north.] The town where they lived was called Marion.

The following additional information concerning the girls is found in a publication called FAIRFIELD COUNTY MARRIAGES, 1775 - 1879, Implied in Fairfield County, S.C. Probate Records, by Barbara R. Langdon, p 160-161.

- a. Ederington, Elizabeth hus: _____ Rook Implication date: 1818
 b. Ederington, Elizabeth hus: _____ Vance " " 1824
 (daughter of Francis Ederington)

NOTE: It would look as though Elizabeth was married twice, but it just might be that there is another "Elizabeth" who got married during the same time-frame. It does seem quite definite that Elizabeth was married sometime before 1824 and that the Probate records have so indicated. I have personally not run across another Elizabeth among the Ederingtons in South Carolina that would fit the 1818 implication of marriage to a ' _____ Rook'. (Again, there may be a simple error).

- b. Ederington, Mildred hus: William Fant Implied: 1824
 (daughter of Francis Ederington)

- c. Ederington, Sarah hus: _____ Vance Implied: 1824
 (daughter of Francis Ederington)

are WILLIAM and DAVID (as per HISTORY OF FAIRFIELD COUNTY, S.C.) The 1824 date of 'implication' comes from the recording of Francis' will in November of that year. Though Elizabeth and Sarah (Sallie) are not mentioned specifically in the will, there is probably further discussion concerning them in the packets and files of this particular action of the probate court. This researcher has the necessary packet titles and descriptions if anyone would like to pursue further inquiry. Those packets, containing the various APT, FILE, and FRAME numbers, are all on micro-film and a copy is at SLC.

There is a publication called FAIRFIELD COUNTY SOUTH CAROLINA MINUTES OF THE COUNTY COURT, 1785-1799, by Brent H. Holcomb, C.A.L.S., and in it there are the following references to Francis Edrington:

First session: 1786	James Gray vs Fra. Ederington	Issue Joined.
Second " : 1786	Richard Winn vs Fras. Edrington	Default
13 May " : 1786	James Gray vs Francis Ederington	Case continued to court.
[date unknown]	Rich. Winn vs Fra. Ederington	On petition. Judgement confessed for L 3, 12, 6, and Costs.
July term : 1798	Francis and Henry drawn to act as Petit Jurors for the January Term, 1799.

Francis was too young to join the Revolutionary War Effort at first but he later enlisted at the age of 16 and served as a Quartermaster under Lafayette. The DAR PATRIOTIC INDEX, p. 215, lists his birth and death dates and says he was a "Pvt, QM, S.C." and married to Frances Crosswhite. In the book SOUTH CAROLINIANS IN THE REVOLUTION by Sara Sullivan Ervin, 1965, it says that he wrote EDERINGTON'S RECOLLECTIONS, 1780. Whether this was a book or an article is not known and no copies of it have come to light so far. Further comment on his military service is found in THE HISTORY OF FAIRFIELD COUNTY by William Ederington:

"My paternal uncles were all engaged in the Revolutionary War. My father being the youngest, did not engage in it until near its close. I heard him say that he volunteered at the age of sixteen under Captain Charnal Durham and encamped at Four Holes for some time awaiting orders, but soon after Henry Clinton evacuated Charleston, and the Corps was disbanded, and the soldiers all left for their homes and were nearly starved before they reached their destination, being afraid to call at any house or allow themselves to be seen, the country through which they had to pass being infested with Tories. Peace was soon after declared."

!NOTE: More can be learned about his war service from his Army records and/or by tracing the Company war history through the name of Captain Charnal Durham and the encampment at Four Holes. The ENCYCLOPEDIA HISTORY OF NOTE: A note of interest is found in a South Carolina Baptist publication entitled THE BAPTIST COURIER, (no pagination or description). It deals with a list of deaths of church members. Concerning the death of Mrs MILDRED FANT:

"Departed this life on May 28th, 1866, Mrs Mildred Fant, in her 99th year, at the residence of her son, Dr. F.M. Fant, Fairfield County, SC. She was the daughter of FRANCIS EDRINGTON, who emigrated from Virginia to South Carolina in 1774, and the consort of Wm Fant, Esq., who died in Union County, SC, 1854. They were both consistent members of Black Rock Baptist Church, Union County. [submitted by William W Edrington].

NOTE: Reuben WAGGENER was also a soldier in the American Revolution. Likewise this line has been proven and accepted by N.S.D.A.R. for membership. Reuben WAGGENER brought his family to Adair Co., and settled on Big Creek in the spring of 1806. Reuben's name appears for the first time in the Adair Co., Ky., Records on May Court 1806 when he is to "view the road leading from Big Creek to the Barren Court House." (Ref: Adair Co., Order Book 1802-1806). The last mention I have found for him in the records of Culpepper Co., Va., was 14 Oct 1805, when he conveys two tracts of land to Philip SLAUGHTER (Culpepper Co., Va., Deed Book AA:195).

"Sale of a tract of land of the estate of James Davis, deceased, known by the name of the Boyd Plantation. Sold at auction to Jonathan Davis, 754 acres for $500 pds down and 3 years credit. January 1824, total amount for acreage: 3671.25."

NOTE: This document would seem to indicate Mary Ann's husband, James Davis, died prior to January 1824. The buyer of the property, Jonathan Davis, is the son of JAMES DAVIS and ANN (Mollie) EDERINGTON. In the book THE HISTORY OF FAIRFIELD, SO CAROLINA, it says: "Colonel Jonathan Davis was a son of JAMES DAVIS, who came from York County a short time after the Revolutionary War, and married Miss Mollie Ederington." (p 62).

NOTE: John's second wife was Elizabeth (HELM) Edrington, former wife of William Edrington (1712-70), deceased. They were md during the Rev War in Fairfield, South Carolina. John's son, James, married Elizabeth's oldest daughter Ann. [Mary-Mollie]

Present data taken from pp 26-28 of an article titled "South Carolina Genealogical Records Commission - DAR Report, 1940", by Mrs Charles Thompson Chappell, Genealogist, Richard Winn Chapter, Jenkinsville, S.C.. Recorded 5th July 1809 JAS. DAVIS

WIFE - Mary Ann (Mollie) EDRINGTON-120

NOTE: Mary Anne went to So. Carolina with her mother just before the Rev. War. Her mother married a John Davis...and Anne married his son, James. [See further material under James' name].

NOTE: According to the data bank of William Scroggins of Taylor Mill, KY, Mary was married to a _____ Furrey. This may have been a second husband.

NOTE: At this writing (Oct 1994) there is a little confusion as to the exact status/name of this child. She is listed in the OPR as "Anne", but in South Carolina she seems to be known as 'Mary'...with the nickname of 'Mollie'. Her full name, at birth, may well have been 'Mary Anne Edrington'...which would account for her being called 'Mollie'. In his book HISTORY OF FAIRFIELD COUNTY, SOUTH CAROLINA, William Ederington speaks of her indirectly when telling of her marriage to JAMES DAVIS in this fashion: "...and her (Betty's) oldest daughter married his son, James Davis." ANNE, according to the OPR (Overwharton Parish Register) would be the oldest child.

Further on in William Ederington's book, in a chapter entitled "Various Fairfield Families", p 62, he would seem to be giving some additional evidence for the above conclusion regarding her name when he says: "Colonel JONATHAN DAVIS was a son of JAMES DAVIS, who came from York County a short time after the Revolutionary War, and married Miss MOLLIE EDERINGTON." Another item might be mentioned here. Mary Ann's younger brother, FRANCIS (b-1764) named a daughter 'Mary Ann'....perhaps after her aunt.

!DEATH: Mary Anne's date of death, according to 'Bill of TN', is hard to determine from the copy I have. It appears to be in the 1840s. As near as I can make it out, it would be: Before Dec 7 1840. Her husband died in 1822.

"Sale of a tract of land of the estate of James Davis, deceased, known by the name of the Boyd Plantation. Sold at auction to Jonathon Davis, 794 acres for $500 pds down and 3 years credit. January 1824, total amount for acreage: 3671.25."

NOTE: This document indicate that Mary Ann's husband, James Davis, died prior to January 1824. The buyer of the property, Jonathon Davis, is the son of JAMES DAVIS and MARY ANN (Mollie) EDERINGTON. In the book THE HISTORY OF FAIRFIELD, SO CAROLINA, it says: "Colonel Jonathan Davis was a son of JAMES DAVIS, who came from York County a short time after the Revolutionary War, and married Miss Mollie Ederington." (p 62). Further: "He became a Baptist preacher about the year 1835. He was a man of liberal education and a rigid disciplinarian in church government. He served Rock Creek, Little River and other churches for many years, even after he became a cripple. He was much devoted to the cause of his Master, and died near Monticello about the year 1860 in full assurance of eternal bliss. Jonathan Davis married Miss Rebecca Kincaid, a daughter of Captain James Kincaid, one of the most pious women I ever knew. While I boarded with them in 1822, she became a cripple for life. She bore her affliction with Christian fortitude and lived many years afterwards. She died at the home of her son-in-law, the Rev James C. Furman, in Greenville, South Carolina, having been blessed with a long life. No purer woman ever lived. Colonel Johathan had nine children, six sons and three daughters." Nov 1830. He was granted $500 pds to do an inventory. Mary died intestate. On 12 Dec 1830 the following appeared before Judge Buchanan: Nancy Edrington, Wm Rook, James Ashford and Robert Sharp. They were assigned by the judge to appraise the inventory.

P. 207: The inventory of Mary Edrington, [a hefty one], was sold at auction, 14 Dec 1830. The following people took part in the division of the estate: William Edrington, Sipe Edrington, John Edrington, Henry, Wm Edrington, Nancy Edrington, and Johnathan Davis.

DOCUM: SLC FS# 292436, pt 7, Indexed. Containing some items concerned with the settling of the estate of MARY EDERINGTON, dec., page 426-427. Court date: 14 Dec 1830. Jonathan Davis appeared at court on 30 Mar 1832 to square accounts between Mary and her former husband, Henry, and her handling of the former's estate. (Henry died 1827). Mary deceased before 1832. According to the petition Mary was assigned by the court to handle an orderly dispersal of Henry's estate...which was of a large amount...and complicated by Henry's former marriage (and children thereof, Jonathan being one of them). Jonathan claimed that between 14 Dec 1828 and 18 Apr 1831 there was an ignoring of the court's directive to Mary, resulting in her estate now owing Henry's estate 354 . 60. 7 ($).
