

I have examined the grave of Francis Edmonston died in early to mid 1800s in a wooded location off Chinook Road in the Blair section - very near the homeplaces of "The Oaks" Maj. Thos. Lyles' and his son, William Strother Lyles's
"Buena Vista" plantation.

It is not too hard to get to by pickup or other farm vehicle and has a large solid slab covering the ground and a tall granite or marble tombstone.

- Pelham Lyles

