Notes

First found in March of 2007 on a Rootsweb Family Tree submitted by Dorothy Alford of San Antonio, I am satisfied this is the correct family. Most dates are approximate Ms. Alford said. I have put James' birth date as 1750.

James first landed in Maryland around the American Revolution and then moved to South Carolina where all his children were born. The only James found in County Down was one in Saintfield, Northern Ireland and had a Freeholder parcel in 1769. Not checked yet is that he was in the American Revolution

Goodspeed's history of Ouchita County, AR records, "John Elliott was a son of James and Peggy, natives of Ireland. They immigrated to this country at an early date, shortly after their marriage and settled in Maryland. They afterward moved to South Carolina where Mr. [John] Elliott was born.

James Sr appears in page 236 of the 1800 Fairfield County census. In 1820 he appears again in 1820 [apparently living with James Jr]. Peggy must have died prior to 1820.

Three of his sons John, Thomas, and James Jr were in the War of 1812 in McWillie's 2nd Regiment and recieved Bounty warrants. There is also a William in that Regiment but it is not known if he is related. That led them to move to Arkansas except James Jr. who died young. In the roster of the War of 1812 there is a Benjamin, George, Allen, another John, and 2 Williams that may be related. Robert Henry may have been there but is not listed. Also found was a Samuel D. Elliott who had moved and had land in AR on the same date as the others which may mean that James Sr. already had family in SC when he moved there. There are Elliotts dating back to the 1600's in SC.

There is a town of Elliott south of Camden in Ouachita County and an Elliott Cemetery

There is a James Elliott of Virginia in the American Revolution but I dont have any information on that yet.

Notes

Goodspeed's says John came to Ouachita County in 1840. But there is a Cash Entry date in 1820 at the Land Office at Champagnolle, AR.

The Ouachita County history says "John Elliott came to [Lafayette Township] Ouachita County in AR in 1840 when there were but few settlers . He purchased a farm of his own and for his son in law of 40 acres that he lived on until his death in 1862. This farm was for many years was one of the old landmarks, being a stopping off place for travelers from El Dorado to Camden." Page 685, The Goodspeed Biographical and Historical Memoirs of Southern Arkansas. Goodspeed Publishing Co., Chicago, Nashville and St. Louis, 1890, reprinted in 1978 by Southern Historical Press, Easley, SC. The dates for birth and death are approximate inferred from affidavits in his and his brother Thomas' Bounty Warrants as privates in Captain William Kincaid's Company of Volunteer Light Infantry, Second Regiment (McWillie's) SC Militia. They served from 6 Oct 1814 until 7 Mar 1815. Their service files give Fairfield District SC as their place of residence and state that the place of rendezvous, Columbia, and was 27 miles from their place of residence. Bounty Warrant BLW -11757-80-55 (1812) and BLW-27857-80-50. His preemption was supported by an affidavit of 3 Sep 1851...wife (marked out [Katie had died]) and 10 children (10 marked out and 4 written over 10). He erected a house thereon a dwelling house 18 x 18 ft into which he removed with his family and household furniture and has lived in said house and made it his exclusive home from the 3rd day of Sep 1851 to the present time and has cultivated about half acre of said land.

In the 1850 Ouachita County census it shows John Elliott Sr. 59, M b. SC, farmer and others of this family close by.

In the census of Lafayette Township in 1860, page 131 John Elliott 68 M b. SC, farmer and on page 131 he had $6000 in real estate and $3000 in personal property.
