P R E F A C E

Much credit for this record is due Lallah Haddon, Secretary of the Ellis Reunion, 1911-1917. We regret that the record is not complete, as to some families, due to inability to contact them. The descendants are scattered from South Carolina to California. On account of expense, it has been necessary to omit much of interest and to condense the record. There were seventeen children of John Eli Ellis and they are designated I. to XVII; his grandchildren by A., B., etc.; his great-grandchildren 1, 2, etc.; his great-great-grandchildren a, b, etc; his great-great-great-grandchildren (1), (2), etc. The words "born", "died", "married" have been omitted. For example under III. "Polly Ann Ellis, Jan. 13, 1822-June 20, 1887—Zechariah Haddon, Nov. 14, 1841-June 28, 1900", means, "Polly Ann Ellis was born Jan. 13, 1822, died June 20, 1887; married Zechariah Haddon Nov. 14, 1841 and he died June 28, 1900", and so on throughout the record. The address of one member of each family is given. The writer would appreciate hearing from any of the relatives. His wish for each one is Jude 24-25.

RECORD OF THE FAMILY OF JOSEPH ELLIS

The father of Joseph Ellis came to America from England about 1760, and settled at Norfolk, Va. Having taken the oath of allegiance to England before he came to America, when the Revolutionary War broke out rather than violate his oath or fight against the Colonies, he and his family went to Nova Scotia. After the war was over they returned to Virginia and later moved to South Carolina and settled near Due West. Joseph Ellis married a Miss Campbell. Their children were:

1. James C., born Feb. 1, 1792. He married Dorcas Davis and lived near Hodges, S. C. They had twelve children; among them were Aleck, Jesse, Tom, and Arch Ellis.

2. Margaret (Peggy) July 4, 1796. She married a Mr. Burton.

3. Robert Nicholas Feb. 2, 1798. He married Jemima Sample. They had twelve children. In 1840 he moved to Abbeville, Ala., and they were lost sight of.

4. John Eli Ellis, Dec. 12, 1794-May 9, 1859. He married Elizabeth Wright, daughter of John Wright, July 16, 1818. She was born March 20, 1804 and died June 21, 1885. She had two brothers, Daniel Wright, who moved to Texas; and Lorenzo, who reared a family near Due West, S. C. John Eli Ellis was a carpenter and built the house into which he took his bride and where she spent the remainder of her life. Their home was one mile south of Due West. He was a large land holder and owned several negro slaves. He and his wife united with the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church and brought up their children in the fear of the Lord. They were Godly people and he was magistrate for many years. Their son, A. E. Ellis, entered the ministry and died at Doraville, Georgia. E. P. Ellis married and settled in Georgia. B. F. Ellis also settled in Georgia, but died in Alabama. All the other children lived in Abbeville County, S. C. August 23, 1884 a reunion of the family was held at the old home with 85 present. On July 27, 1911 a reunion of the descendants was held at Bethlehem church near Due West, and an organization was effected with 170 relatives present. This reunion was held annually until 1929, when on August 8, the last one was held. The last of the children of J. E. Ellis having passed away, a memorial service in their honor was held. There are 17 grandchildren of J. E. Ellis now living. At some of these reunions as many as 400 or more relatives and friends would be present. The lives of the seventeen children covered a period of 110 years—1819-1929; total of their ages is 1033 years; average age 60 years and 9 months. See the Fifth Commandment, Ex. 20:12. The five preachers of the family served in the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.
