Hello and thanks for returning my email.
I am now living in Oklahoma so...

I am looking for a Charles Ellerson/Ellison wife Cattie/ children. I found them in Fairfield county, 1880. Age 27 and listed as Mu. Our family then moved to Chester.. Anyways. Can't find them anywhere in 1870. So strange. They have to be somewhere??? Looked on Ancestry.com/familyserch.org. I know his son moved to Phil in 1920 and some family moved to Detroit in 1920. Just can't time them before 1880. Any Ideas? Sabrina

Hi, Sabrina,

I am live and living, just running from pillar to post in the usual style. The museum now has a genealogy room operated by volunteers and research manager Eddie Killian. There is usually a backlog of lookups so the best thing is to plan a visit to come in when they are open. That way, you can access files and materials. If you have a laptop, we have wifi and can also help you to use membership databases like Ancestry, Fold3, etc. Are you still in Charlotte?

I am copying to Eddie here, but you will need to send specifics to get help by email. This coming week we will be under the rush of getting ready for a weekend event, so it would be better to come after that. See you soon, I hope!

Hello Sabrina,

I also was not able to find anything for Charles in 1870.

However, his wife was living in Winnsboro, Fairfield County, South Carolina in 1870.

They married in 1874, so he may have been in Fairfield or Chester Counties in transient and missed the 1870 census either by traveling or working back in forth.

He apparently missed the 1910 census also.

If you need this information, I have:

- the 1870 Census for his future wife, Catherine "Kattie" or "Cattie" Brown;
- the 1880 & 1900 census;
- SC Death Record;
- Death Certificate.

If you need information on tombstone or grave:

- did not find anything on find a grave for cemetery in North or South Carolinas;
- Death Certificate states he was buried in Chester County;
- our records that we do have for Chester County are tombstone dates older than Charles;
- check with King Funeral Home in Chester, Chester County, South Carolina for assistance, they may be able to help locate grave.

You may be able to get some assistance for Chester County records or even census at either the Chester County Library Resource Section or Chester County Genealogy Society.

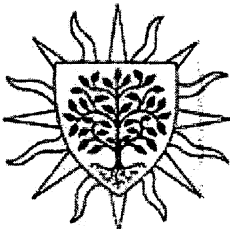

Hope this helps.....

Eddie
