

WILL OF ROBERT ELLISON

The State of South Carolina

In the Name of God Amen. I Robert Ellison of the District of Fairfield labouring at present under great bodily infirmities and being convinced of my approaching dissolution have thought proper to make this my last will and testament. In the first place I desire that my debts and funeral expenses should be paid out of the proceeds of my present crop and out of the purchase money of the following property that is to say One lot in the Town of Winnsboro containing one quarter of an acre; one tract of land containing One hundred and Sixty acres Situate in the District aforesaid bounded Each by the Widow Lochridge, land and on other sides by James McMullens land; Also one other tract of land containing One hundred and Seventy acres bounded West on Thomas Dodd's land and on other sides as laid down in the plat; and Also out of the debts due me including that of John Weldon. I desire that the above mentioned property should not be sold at public sale but at a private sale to the best advantage and if anything should remain afterpaying my debts and funeral expenses I direct the same to be equally divided among my Children. All the rest of my property real and personal I distribute in the following manner: To my eldest Son William Ellison and my Second Son John I give and bequeath that Tract of land or half of a tract Which lies above the mouth of the Wateree Creek on the West side of the Wateree River and bounded on the south by the said Creek; Also one other moiety of a tract of land situate a little distance above the Mouth of the Wateree Creek lying on each Side of the said Creek bounded East and North on Auston Peays on the West and North on John Hensons land and that moiety of the same tract which belongs to the said

Austin Peay and also Mrs. Briggs land to be equally divided between them Share and share alike and to the use of themselves their heirs and assigns forever; To Elizabeth Ellison eldest daughter of the said William Ellison I give and bequeath a young Negro girl named Binah to the use of herself her heirs and assigns forever; To Robert Ellison eldest Son of John Ellison I give and bequeath a young Yellow boy named Navey to the use of himself his heirs and assigns forever - To my Son Robert Ellison I give all that body of land on Which I now live Situate on the head branches of the Jacksons Creek and known by the following boundaries; to wit, bounded north on David Hornes and Robert Gauble East on Hugh Barclay; South on Samuel W. Yongue and James Camron and West on Major Moore and lands originally granted to Robert Box -- To my son James Ellison I give and bequeath One Tract of land containing three hundred acres situate on Lick Creek a branch of the Wateree Creek bounded on all sides. Then surveyed on vacant land to the use and behalf of himself his heirs and assigns forever; to the said James Ellison I likewise give the following negros, Jack, Monday, Prince, Nance, and Jane to the only proper use and behalf of himself his heirs & assigns forever. To Joseph Ellison my youngest son I give and bequeath that Tract of land originally granted to Robert Box which lies on the head branches of Jacksons Creek containing three hundred acres bounded when surveyed on all sides by vacant land to himself, his heirs and assigns forever -- To the said Joseph Ellison I likewise give and bequeath the negros Neury, Ned, Tom, Doll, Toney and Dublin to him his heirs and assigns forever and if either of them the said James and Joseph should die without attaining the age of twenty one years the property above devised to them or either of them to be divided between my sons William John and Robert, and the survivor of them and if they should both die without attaining the age of twenty one years then the said property to be divided between my said Sons William, John & Robert - To John Ellison I commit the guardianship of James

Ellison & the care of his property until he comes of age - To Robert I in like manner commit the guardianship of Joseph and the care of his property until he is of age; And as idleness is the parent of vice and always injurious to youth, I desire that Joseph shall by his own exertions procure himself food and clothing until he has the management of his own property - To my living daughter Sarah I likewise give and bequeath the two negroes Women Amey and Coutney with their increase to the use of herself her heirs and assigns forever - My riding chair I likewise give to my said daughter Sarah & Mary Ellison Wife of William Ellison to their joint use and benefit - I likewise will and direct that whatever money may be received from Colonel Hill and the balance of the money coming from the representatives of Crawford & also as much money as I may have paid toward the purchase of Mosey Pauls land be paid into the hands of John for the use of James Ellison, the last to be paid by Robert as his part of the land is of the greatest value so as to make up the sum of one thousand dollars if the same shall amount to so much. My beds I direct to be divided between my sons Robert James and Joseph. To my son Robert I likewise give my riding horse. And all the residue of my stock of cattle horses hogs and aforesaid and also my household furniture I direct to be divided between all my children but I think it most advisable that my son Robert should take the whole at a reasonable valuation and give to the rest their proper share in money. I likewise direct that my executors should out of the present crop pay to my son William two hundred dollars for his services during the year and also that he should be allowed one fourth part of the ensuing crop; and I also direct my said executores out of the ensuing crop to pay into the hands of my wife Jane Ellison fifty pounds in cash, and I hereby appoint my nephew William Ellison my friend Samuel Johnston and by son Robert executors of this my last Will and testament.

Kennedy, Moore, Watson, Weldon, and Robertson in the cemetery. Robert Ellison's home was once headquarters for a company of Revolutionary soldiers. The home was destroyed during the war and was rebuilt but was again burned in 1865, during the Confederate War (Page 35 - Descendants of John and Robert Ellison by Clara Ellison Erath). Robert Ellison born County Antrim, Ireland married Elizabeth Potts, November 6, 1772, in Charleston, South Carolina. Tradition says her father was Thomas Potts, (Land Grant 1732-1736; 1759-1770) of Charleston. The Potts family arrived on the Snow Betty Gregg from Belfast. The family listed were Robert Potts--200 acres, John Potts--100 Acres, Elizabeth Potts--100 acres. Their ages were Robert Potts - 58, Sarah Potts - 57 (Land Grant 1732-1736), John Potts - 21 (Land Grant 1767, 1768, 1769), and Elizabeth Potts - 15, deceased in 1774, Robert Potts -14, considered a minor.

Organized Company

During the Revolutionary War, Robert Ellison organized a company of which he was Captain under General Moultrie and was promoted to Major.

Mount Zion Society

The Mount Zion Society was formed. Its object was to promote education of the youth and build a school in the Camden District. It was chartered in 1777 with John Winn as President and Robert Ellison and William Strother as wardens. A school 1/2 stories was built. It was a log cabin. Copies of the minutes of the Mount Zion Society dated 1783 can be found. Tradition says Robert Ellison rode to Rowan, North Carolina, to persuade Thomas H. McCaule to be its President. It began with a membership of 58.

When Robert Ellison was captured by the British his wife, alone and unprotected with 3 children, was molested by the Tories, who tore her hair out by the roots and burned her home. She, upon little pack horses, with Newry, her servant, and her
