

The Cagle family

3 daughters of Mary
Martha & John Wm. Cagle

Francis Cagle - married.

A. Wm. Cagle (They had four children)

1. Dolores - married Augustus E. Roff.

She is buried at Salem church. They had three children.

- 1. Male Roff Brabham - lives in Florida
- 2. Caroline " Platt - a widow - lives in Ala.
- 3. Augustus E. Roff - a brilliant scientist - was a Rhodes scholar and afterwards worked at Oak Ridge until retirement some years ago. He is married (no children) & now teaches at Collier College where his wife also teaches.

~~Francis Cagle~~
 2. Caroline married Frank Baker & he died several years later - she remarried W. R. Cook during world war I - He is buried at Salem church.

- 1. Marian Baker - now Mrs. W. P. Sullivan
- 2. Wm. R. Cook - a chemist for General & lives at Hartsville, S.C.
- 3. John C. Cook - a lawyer - Retired after 20 years with F.B.I. & now teaches law at a branch of University of Tenn.

3. Clyde Cagle - married Frieda Estes of Hartshorn two daughters & one son - all live in Hartshorn

I thought to mention that Aunt Fannie Cagle had another daughter Belle, who died at about age 3 & I think is buried at Salem church - I was just a small child & have no recollection of her - So she & I would have been no. 2. as she was Cagle children was born.

John Wier Evans

(1.) (Aunt Bigger) was not included in your list of children of my grandparents

1. Elizabeth Evans.

married Wm. McGill - 2 Sons + 1 daughter

1. Evans McGill

2. Eugenia " see letter Mr. McGill to Mrs. Evans

3. William " see newspaper clipping

She was my mother's oldest sister - shortly after her marriage they moved to Palestine, Texas + my mother never saw them again. The daughters died in childhood - Both sons lived a normal length of time but all died years ago. I do not know if they were married and have no other information about them.

2. Caroline (Aunt Carrie Arnette)

3. Frances - (Aunt Fannie Eargle)

4. Lola (my mother) Wallace

5. Minnie - married Julian Elliott

I did not know that they had a son, James, who died in childhood. I called my cousin Carrie Eargle Cook for information about her brother Clyde, and she says the grand parents had two little boys who died in early childhood with diphtheria -
