Looks with Interest to 85th birthday Thursday of Mrs. John C. Feaster

A subject for rejoicing in the neighborhood and among relatives and friends throughout the county and state is the approaching 85th anniversary of the birthday of Mrs. John C. Feaster (Sallie Patsy Lyles) Thursday, December 5. She has spent all her years in her native place and has resided from childhood in her grandfather's house on the hill opposite Buena Vista, which was built by her father, Maj. William Strother Lyles, a member of the Secession convention. Her great-grandfather, Aromanus Lyles, was the first white child born in Fairfield county and was an officer of the Revolution and a member of the state convention which adopted the United States Constitution. Her grandfather, Maj. Thomas Lyles, was a colonel of the militia in the threatening period of nullification 97 years ago. He and his wife, Mary Woodward, reared an orphaned niece, Sallie Woodward, who married her first cousin, William S. Lyles, and was the mother of Sallie Patsy, who was thus doubly descended from the regulator and was a near cousin to Mrs. Dr. William Aiken, Judge Buchanan and Maj. T.W. Woodward.

Sallie Patsy was educated in Greenville and at Limestone college (Cooper Institute) during the Confederate war and has been an ardent patriot in girlhood and throughout life. She now wears a Hampton button. She has been a member of Rock Creek Baptist church about 70 years and is a zealous Baptist and mission worker.

Mrs. Feaster has enjoyed remarkable health and, though feeble and confined to the house for a year or more, is physically well and delights to see her friends. She is devotedly cared for by her adopted daughter Gussie Salyer, wife of Ben D. Crowder, who is also an attentive son.

Living in her grandfather's brick house she has seen a few hundred yards distance her father's beautiful home Buena Vista, occupied successively by her cousin, William Boykin Lyles (killed at Seven Pines); by Mrs. Catherine Ladd (after retiring from her Young Ladies' school in Winnsboro); Miss Florence G. Feaster, who prematurely died the past week leaving cherished memory; and by her niece, Mrs. J. Sprole Lyons, until it was unfortunately burned down a few years ago.

It is notable that Mrs. Feaster's first cousin, John Woodward Lyles, now in Winnsboro, Clerk of Court for 20 years, was 84 September 2. He is in perfect health and vigor, living alone with his wife after the marriage of their six children. His father, Capt. Thomas M. Lyles, and wife, Eliza Peay, lived together more than 65 years within a mile of the home of the older Thomas Lyles and reared 11 children, sending six sons into the Confederate army, two to be killed. The third, Thomas Lyles, spending most of his life in Louisiana after Appomattox, returned to Fairfield and died at Rockton some years ago. The fourth, Thomas M., is a prominent lawyer in Spartanburg. Mrs. Feaster's half-brother, William H. Lyles, lives in Columbia. Her full sister, Mary, married Col. S.D. Goodlett of Greenville and has descendants in Fairfield and in Augusta.

The Rock Creek-Buckhead neighbors are proud of Mrs. Feaster's noble Christian life and wish her many more years of gracious living and inspiring example to her community.
