He was in God's house, in God's service, with God's people. He was enjoying Jesus.

After an overnight hospital stay, the Lord suddenly called him from home to depart this earthly life to gain his heavenly crown in glory on Wednesday, November 03, 1999 at the Union Memorial Hospital, Baltimore, MD.

Although his passing has left us in great sorrow, we bow in humble submission to the will of God; knowing that he is in his resting-place and God never makes a mistake.

[Poem: To Be Read by; Elizabeth C. West, Cousin]

God saw you getting weaker
And He whispered "Come and Rest"
His garden must be beautiful,
For He only picks the best.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Daddy

My tears, they seem endless
My pain seems too much to bear
To question God's plan
Never would I dare

Somehow all the answers
Are not there to be found
Although I know towards heaven
You were surely bound

I don't know how I'll do it
I don't know where to start
To be without you daddy
Leaves a hole in my heart

HE never makes a mistake
For this I know is true
But how to go on without you
I just don't have the a clue

I know who holds the future
And I know HE holds my hand
To get through these days
Solid in my faith, I must stand

I miss you so much daddy
But I know you're well at rest
For God is truly omnipotent
Yes, HE alone, knows best

Together we will make it
Day after day I'll try
I'm sure we'll understand this Together, by and by

You're there with the angels
Never to worry again
Now is where my understanding
This day, must begin.

Shorty

Like a ship that has left its mooring and sails bravely out to sea, so someone dear has sailed away in calm serenity.
