~ The Obituary ~

“I Fought A Good Fight; I Kept The Faith”

The final chapter in the life of Deacon David Ernest Feaster was written on Saturday, November 1, 2008, at his home. He answered the Master's call and departed this earthly life. Born in Chester County on March 29, 1939, he was the son of the late Dave Feaster and Lillie Mae Feaster.

Deacon Feaster confessed Christ at an early age and became a member of Sweet Hope Baptist Church, where he served as a Sunday School Teacher for forty-one years, served on the Board of Deacons for thirty-five years and served as chairman for a period of time. He was a member of Pine Springs Community Club, President of the Christian Burial Aid Society and was a member of Silver Hill Masonic Lodge #128 for over forty years. He attended the public schools of Chester County, and he was employed by Cone Mill in Carlisle, South Carolina.

To know Deacon Feaster was to love him. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends and all those who knew and loved him.

Deacon Feaster was preceded in death by: his parents, Dave Feaster and Lillie Mae Feaster; and two sisters, Lillie Ruth Feaster and Betty Jean Feaster.

Deacon David Ernest Feaster leaves to cherish loving memories: his loving wife of fifty years, Bessie J. Feaster of the home; one son, Randy U. Feaster of Rock Hill, S.C.; four daughters, Delores F. Butler of Carlisle, S.C., Trina Feaster of Rock Hill, S.C., Melveree (John) Foster and Christa Bonte' (Wayne) Sanders. both of Chester, S.C.; four brothers, Sidney (Barbara) Feaster of Baltimore, Md., Fermon B. (Lila) Feaster, MacArthur (Elizabeth) Feaster, both of Chester, S.C., and Frederick (Mary) Feaster of Charlotte, N.C.; two sisters, Virginia (Robert) Pinkney of Philadelphia, PA., and Annette (Bernard) Proctor of Baltimore, Md.; nine grandchildren, Ebony (Rahman) Williams, Justen Crank, Brandon Crank, Christen Blake Sanders, Makelia Sanders, Sydney Sanders, Deitric Butler, Martisha Foster and Jessica Foster; two great-grandchildren, Kennedi Williams and Taylor Williams; two aunts, Estelle Price and Atlee Feaster, both of Baltimore, Md.; a devoted cousin, John Lee (Daisy) Feaster of Carlisle, S.C.; seven sisters-in-law, and four brothers-in-law; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Thank you for showing us what a Christian man is,
And how love and prayer
can keep a family strong through the good times and the bad.

Love,
The Grandchildren

“My Work Is Done”

I have taken my final stand,
My journey is now done.
My life has not ended, for me, it has just begun.
Do not weep or mourn for me,
Because soon you will find,
We will meet again. It is just a matter of time.
And when we meet again,
There will be a smile on my face
I will be happy because, I am in a better place.
So celebrate my life, and all the good
I was able to bring.
Remember all I have done,
Even the little things.
Don't ever dwell in the past;
Just look forward to the now,
Because I am sure, with time,
you will make it some how.
Life for me has not ended, I have just begun.
Don't cry or mourn for me;
Because my work is done.
