

2013

The Herald Independent

OBITUARIES

FOSTER

WINNSBORO — Kate Seagle Foster, 93, of Winnsboro, died early Friday, October 4, 2013, at her home. Born January 14, 1920, in Lincolnton, N.C., she was the daughter of Benjamin F. Seagle and Bertha Leonard Seagle.

Kate was a devoted wife and mother who is survived by her husband of 62 years, Robert Randall Foster.

A 1942 graduate of Appalachian State Teachers College with a degree in Education, Kate taught elementary school for 37 years. She was known for her cooking skills and was called "Cake" by several young nephews and nieces who had tasted her baked goods. Kate enjoyed playing bridge, sewing and needlework.

She was an active member of Sion Presbyterian Church and participated in many facets of the church, particularly Women's Circle.

Kate approached life without any complaints. Even in declining health, Kate always responded, "all right. Don't worry about me". She was one of those people who we all strive to be.

Survivors are her children, Benjamin

Robert Foster (Rita) of Lilburn, Ga., and William Randall Foster (Jayne) of Winnsboro; grandchildren, Katherine Anne Foster (Andy) Potter of Houston, Texas, Mary Alice Foster of Austin, Texas, Brittany Marie Foster (Zach) McCorkle of Rock Hill, and the late William Randall (Ry) Foster, Jr.; and one great-granddaughter Ryliegh Marie McCorkle. The family would also like to thank all her caregivers, especially Frieda Johnson, for her kindness and assistance during these last months.

Visitation will be held at Pope Funeral Home, 521 S. Congress St., Winnsboro, SC, at 2 p.m. on Sunday, October 6, 2013, followed by a graveside service at 3 p.m. at Sion Presbyterian Church Cemetery, Garden St. (between Washington and Liberty Streets), conducted by Reverend Karen Newsome.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Sion Presbyterian Church, PO Box 556 Winnsboro, SC 29180.

Pope Funeral Home is serving the Foster family.

Online condolences may be sent to the Foster family at www.popefuneralhomesc.com.