BIOGRAPHY

Wilhelmine (Lily) Volken Fox, 77, of Winnsboro passed away on Friday, December 20, 2013.

Mrs. Fox is survived by her brother, Gustav Volken, Geneva, Switzerland and sisters Marianne Studer, St. Leonhard, Germany, Christine Rattoni, Geneva, Switzerland, Hedy Zeiter, Fiesch, Switzerland and Anny Walpen. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, David W. Fox.

A memorial service in memory of Lily will be scheduled at a later date.

Born in Fiesch im Wallis in Switzerland, she was the daughter of Alfred Volken and Emma Burgener Volken.

Lily came to America in 1980. She lived in Washington, Minneapolis and moved to Winnsboro in 2000. She loved to work in her garden and shared her love of gardening with many. Her garden was her pride and joy. She loved to travel (she climbed the Matterhorn). She and her husband who was a pilot have flown to every state except Hawaii. She eventually traveled to Hawaii with a group of friends from Winnsboro that she traveled with frequently.

She worked at the University of Minneapolis teaching knitting, crochet and hand crafts. She taught and judged various knitting, crochet, cross stitch, beading, tatting, hardanger and other stitchery and loved to share her talents with others. She has always been a volunteer with various community organizations. She has many friends here and throughout the United States and will be greatly missed.

She was a member of the Lions Club, Red Hat Society, Friday Night Live, and the Fairfield County Historical Society.
