1. NICHOLOS<sup>1</sup> FRUH, SR was born Abt. 1700 in Germany. He married UNKNOWN ??? FRUH in Germany.

Notes for NICHOLOS FRUH, SR:

I am searching for northern kin from Nicholas (Fruh)Free who arrived in Philadelphia in 1736 from Germany with three sons; Jacob age 28, Lorance age 28 and Hendrick age 17. We are from Lorances line in the South.

Jo, I found on Rootsweb, a Sybille Pierce at jspierce@FTC-1.net some things about Nicholas and his family, maybe our side came from there She lists his sons Nicholas, Lorentz, Jacob & Henrich. Of Jacob she lists his children as John Gabriel, Jacob edmund, Allen F. and a daughter and I think the John Gabriel who married a Mary Rush is our John & Mary. If you need more from me, email me and I will send you a copy of this.

Trying to find Richard and his family. I only know for sure that he married Sarah Ann French Feb 7, 1866 in Lawrence Co. Ala. Sarah Ann was born in 1845 so I suspect that Richard was born some time just before that. Sarah Ann died in 1893 in Archer Tex.

I have Richard in my family tree. It shows he was born 4/1846 in Mount Hope, Lawrence Co., AL. He died 2/26/1896 in Fannin Co., TX. He married Mary Goins then Sarah French in 1866. I have more info if you need. Just drop me an email.

Annette Farnsworth genealogy Report:

Mack and Ida Mae Free went to live with William Cephas and Martha Free in Knoxville, TN after their mother died because their father had remarried and their step mother was not good to them. They had at least two stepbrothers. Mack Free and someone (maybe Rheben Privette) and one of the step brothers went out west and the step-brother died (maybe shot). They buried him and did not notify his mother until they came home. They were gone for quite a while. When they came home they told her "He died - we buried him".

Free bit pieces out of Potter's breast and spit them out before they could be seperated, in fact, it looked as though they would "chew each other up" in spite of all that could be done. The Gingham dog and the Calico cat had nothing on Free and Potter."

Notes for LEWIS O BEAUFORD:

LAST RITES HELD FOR L O BEAUFORD SUNDAY AFTERNOON At Presbyterian Church

Died in Veterans Hospital, Columbia Saturday Morning

Lewis O Beauford died at the Veteran's Hospital in Columbia Saturday Morning, September 25, 1937, after an illness of more than a month. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock from the Presbyterian church conducted by his pastor, Rev G M Telford assisted by Rev J R Hooten of Greenwood. The services were more largely attended than any funeral held in Abbeville in many years. The pallbearers were all members of the Masonic Lodge and were: Messrs. T A Sherare, J H Sherard, Prue Blanchett, Lowrie Wilson, R H Brazeale and Judge A B Carwile. The honorary escort was made up of members of the State Highway department and seventeen counties were represented, numbering about fifty men attesting the great popularity of the deceased. The scriptures were read and favorite songs were rendered by the choir made up of Mrs Grier Sherard, Mrs Paul Kennedy, Mrs Herman Wisby, and Miss Sarah Smith, Messrs Robert Knell, and Francis Glenn, after which the body was taken to Long Cane Cemetery where the services were conducted by the Masonic Lodge of Abbeville of which Mr Beauford was a member. The floral offerings came from all sections of the state, handsome pieces being received from the Highway departments of Union, Greenville, Gaffney and Laurens, Abbeville Post No 2 American Legion, Union Post No 20, Masonic Lodge, Woodmen of the World and others. Lewis Beauford was born in Abbeville County, the son of Henry Beauford and Ellen Spence Beauford and was 44 years of age, passing away on his birthday, Sept. 25, 1937. He attended the public schools as a boy and at the coming of the World War enlisted for service and was assigned to the army supply depot at Long Island, NY. He went overseas as a private in the American Expeditionary forces and served from June 29, 1918 to March 19, 1919. He was honorable discharged April 8, 1919. Mr. Beauford has rendered a long and honorable service with the state highway department. He served as maintenance superintendent at Abbeville for eight years and then went to McCormick. He held the same position in Clarendon, Williamsburg and the past year in Union. In all these appointments he has given a satisfactory service and was held in high esteem by all with whom he came in contact. He was married eighteen years ago to Miss Addie Woodhurst, of this county. She spent much time in Columbia and was at his bedside when he passed away. They have no children. Besides his wife, he is survived by his father, Mr Henry Beauford, a brother, Eugene Beauford of this city, and a sister Mrs John Malpass of Chester. There is a wide circle of relatives over the county who with many friends regret the passing of this young man. Mr Beauford was a member of the Presbyterian church, the American Legion Post No 20 of Union and the Masonic fraternity of Abbeville. Mr and Mrs Beauford have recently built a home for themselves on Cherry street and they took much pride in getting established in their home. Mr Beauford lived in the house only a few days. The sincere sympathy of the people of Abbeville is extended to the disconsolate wife and relatives. [article in scrapbook kept by Carrie Lorena Metts McNeill]

Abbeville, Columbia, SC FRITHS help Posted by: Scott F. Hall Date: August 22, 2001 at 15:44:08

I've posted this question before (see below) but now I have some more info my Mother, Beverly Frith, has said lately. Please read and write me hallsf@netzero.net if you can help -- trying to find our link to Abbeville, SC Friths. We know we come from that town but don't yet have the link.

I'm looking for links to my g-grandpa John Larkin Frith, mid-1800s, who was married to Isabelle (also likely maiden-named Frith). Their son was Carl R. Frith, 1908-1993 who was married to Esther Carter and had the daughters Beverly and Brenda Frith.

Beverly said lately: "Sallie Frith was the wife of Paul Frith, who was my Dad's brother. They lived several streets over from my Mother and Dad on Overbrook Drive in a big stone house. Paul was an employee of the telephone company for years. He is the uncle who gave me all those silver dollars when I was a child. Sallie ran a luncheon counter in a store in downtown Columbia for years. Her maiden name was Rabon. They did not have children, but adopted Sharon Frith, who was born to my aunt, Ollie Belle Frith. I think Sharon lives in Jacksonville and graduated from USC. She had a brother named Charles who visited my Mother and Dad once in awhile. Heaven only knows what happened to him.

Maybe you could track down my cousin, Alice Bell Christian, who was the daughter of Ebb and Florence (maiden name Frith, my Dad's sister) Christian, born and raised in Abbeville. She was in our wedding, but I lost track of her when I married Dad. My Dad had a brother named Earl Frith, I think he died young. There was another sister named Mildred Frith who worked at Ft. Jackson during WWII. Ollie Bell and Mildred we saw often as children. We also travelled to Abbeville to visit Aunt Florence and family. Ollie Bell and Mildred's favorite niece, however, was the aforementioned Alice Belle. Most likely because of her name."

Thank you so very much for this information which I will take time to digest. It is a lot to comprehend in one reading. Robert Wesley Smith and my great grandfather, Walter Davis Smith were brothers. Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" Yarbrough and my great grandmother, Kathryn Ella Yarbrough, were sisters. There were lots of double cousins. Effie Cox and Lila Douglas grew up in Aunt Lizzie and Uncle Dote's home. They were about 8 and 6 years of age when Aunt Lizzie and Uncle Dote married in April of 1895. My father was the child of Walter Davis Smith and Kathryn Ella Yarbrough, both of whom died before I was born. However, I did know and love Uncle Dote and Aunt Lizzie and their family. Thank you again for the information. Grace S. Lee mygenes@alltel.net

Since the father died in 1875, it is assumed that the transcription on the 1880 LDS CDs, which gives his Date of birth as 1877 is in error. This compiler also checked the original, and it was difficult to read the ages of the children in the family with certainty. However, instead of the 3 years old that the LDS records give, he looked to have the age 5 or 7, as did her brother Beuford. The 1900 census is clearer and if birthdate is correct, indicates that his mother was pregnant with him when his father died in Dec. 1875.

Too young or not he was out of the Perry household, boarding with Fannie and Preston Still in Verdery, Greenwood in 1900. Attached in 2 sheets, Stills on first and Brook(s) Perry on second. He appears to have been working on their farm.

Was looking over census of 1900, at Mansfield Perry. Did not see Brooks Workman, he should have been too young to be on his own. Did I just overlook it? I do not belong to Ancestry yet but am going to join, hopefully today. Thank you both again, as I said before really new at this and have a lot to learn.

Miss Carrie Metts and Mr David McNeill were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs Ben Metts, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the Rev J B Hillhouse officiating. The house was beautifully decorated with evergreen, fern and roses. After the ceremony was performed refreshments of charlotte russe and cake were served by Mrs Lewis Beauford, Mrs Joe Link and Mrs J M Fortescue. Mrs McNeill is the oldest daughter of Mr and Mrs Ben Metts and has many friends here who wish them a long and happy life. (article in scrapbook kept by Carrie Lorena Metts McNeill)

Mr and Mrs David McNeill are planning to celebrate the 60th anniversary of their wedding December 26 from 3 to 5 pm at Lebanon Church. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served. Mrs McNeill is the former Carrie Metts, daughter of Mr and Mrs B P Metts of Hodges. They had a home wedding with Rev Mr Hillhouse officiating. Her sister Sara Metts and Paul Link were children attendants and they are still living. Mr McNeill has been engaged in farming all his life and is now retired. Mrs McNeill has been a nurse's aid at Abbeville Memorial Hospital practically all her life in the maternity ward where she dressed all the newborn babies. They have a large family of boys and girls who have done well in their chosen professions. Mrs McNeill says they could not accumulate a large fortune for them and all they could do for their children was to give them a good education. That gift was better than fine gold. 108. MARTHA ELIZABETH 'LIB'<sup>7</sup> BEAUFORD (LEMUEL OLIVER 'OLIN'<sup>6</sup>, MARTHA CAROLINE<sup>5</sup> FREE, JOHN<sup>4</sup>, ADAM<sup>3</sup>, LAWRENCE<sup>2</sup> FRUH, NICHOLOS<sup>1</sup>) was born 08 Dec 1911 in Troy, Greenwood Co, SC, and died 30 Sep 2008 in Abbeville Co, SC. She married WILLIE EARL BESINGER, SR 30 Nov 1934 in Abbeville Co, SC, son of HARDY BESINGER and MARY PATTON. He was born 05 Nov 1909 in Abbeville Co, SC, and died 22 Aug 1981 in Abbeville Co, SC.

Notes for MARTHA ELIZABETH 'LIB' BEAUFORD:
BESINGER, Elizabeth 'Lib' - Thursday, October 2, 2008 11:45 PM EDT ABBEVILLE -- Mattie Elizabeth Beauford Besinger, widow of William Earle Besinger, passed away Tuesday, Sept. 30, 2008. She was a longtime resident of Abbeville, living 70 years on Mill Street, currently residing at Abbeville Nursing Home. Born in Troy, SC, Dec. 8, 1911, she was the last surviving child of Lemuel Oliver and Mattie Elizabeth Horne Beauford. Her brothers were Charlie, Buck and Jack. The sisters were Evie Hall, Lenora Drennan, Ruth Beauford and Louise Roddy. She was a graduate of John De la Howe in McCormick, SC, and John Brown University in Siloam Springs, AR. After working 20 years in Abbeville Mills, she decided to return to college and completed her teaching degree at Erskine College. She really enjoyed teaching school and retired from the Greenwood County School system after 20 years of teaching. In 1972, she was chosen Teacher of the Year. While working in the mill, she took a home nursing course from the Chicago School of Nursing and helped with the sick in the community. Many times she served as a midwife to the doctors. For 10 or 15 years she gave Insulin shots every day to a neighbor. Helping people was her greatest joy. She was instrumental in starting "Helping Hands" in Abbeville. For 50 years she wrote "Lib's Locals" for the Press and Banner. She thoroughly enjoyed working with the "Sisters of the Swish" during the Bi-Centennial. Many years she was active in The Pilot Club, where she served as President and in many other offices. In 1968 she was selected as the "Woman of the Year" and in Christmas of 1994 the star on the "Lights of Love" tree was dedicated to her. In 1994 she was honored by the Governor of S.C. with one of the highest awards for her volunteer work, "The Order of The Palmetto." Very few people receive this award. She was a member and past president of the Abbeville Mental Health Association. It gave her much pleasure to plan parties and events for the consumers. She always thanked God for giving her the ability and health to help others and how she did love that. For 25 years she was a member of the Secession Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. It was her dream to organize a new chapter and train others to carry on our heritage. This dream became reality in 1992 when the Mary Stark Davis Chapter No. 2573 was organized in Abbeville with 16 new members, with her serving as President of the Chapter. She was also a member and helped organize the Division Granddaughters. All of her accomplishments in the UDC made her worthy of the highest award given "The Winnie Davis Medal". At the time of her death she was Honorary President of the South Carolina Division of The UDC. Since the time she married her husband, Willie Besinger, she was a member of Grace United Methodist Church, where she served faithfully as a Sunday School Teacher, MYF Leader, Lay Speaker, UMW Leader, Choir Member and almost every office in her church. She was even known to preach at times. Paul, the apostle was one of her favorites and she said as he said "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course and I have kept the faith." Survivors include her loving daughter, Beth Besinger Burnett and her husband, Dan Burnett of Monroe, GA; grandchildren: Danette Burnett Burson and husband, Mark of Lawrenceville, GA, Theresa Burnett Edwards and husband, Ken of Social Circle, GA, and Jim Burnett and his wife, Alice, also of Lawrenceville, GA; great-grandchildren: Jacob Burson, Jennie Nichols, Kent Edwards, Luke Edwards, JEB Edwards, Marianna Burnett, Natalie Walden, and Rachel Gardner; great-great-grandchildren: Brady, Brooke, Brielle Burson, Lana Nichols, Hailey and Michael Walden; several nieces, nephews, cousins; special friend Susie New; and also a favorite niece, Billie Brown. The family will receive visitors at the Chandler Jackson Funeral Home on Friday evening, Oct. 3, 2008 from 5 to 8. Services will be held Saturday, Oct. 4, 2008 at 11:30 in the Chandler Chapel, officiated by Rev. Eddie Taylor. The burial will follow at Forest Lawn Memory Gardens, Abbeville. Pallbearers will be grandson, Jimmy Burnett; great-grandsons, Jacob Burson, Kent Edwards, Luke Edwards, JEB Edwards; and friend, Casey Smith. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Grace Methodist Church, PO Box 1007, Abbeville, SC 29620 or Friends of Trinity PO Box 911 Abbeville, SC 29620. Online condolences may be made to the Besinger family by visiting <http://www.chandlerjacksonfh.com>. The Chandler-Jackson Funeral Home and Cremation Services is in charge of arrangements.

He married GERTRUDE MARIE WEAR 16 Dec 1928 in Decatur, Morgan Co, AL, daughter of BASIL WEAR and LUNA PICKENS. She was born Abt. 1911 in Decatur, Morgan Co, AL.

Notes for FREEMAN COY FREE:

Freeman was the youngest surviving child of Walter (Wuss) and Molly's 13 children. He took care of them until their death. He inherited the place his Dad built on the Old Trinity Road as a result of taking care of his mother for the last days of her life. None of Walter's other children would take on the responsibility. He worked many years at the Cooper-Wells hosiery mill in Decatur. It was a good job during the depression years. After Cooper-Wells went out of business in the 1950's, he sold insurance for the Mutual Savings Life Insurance Company for many years, after which he left the insurance business and went to work for the Standard Coffee Company. He was influenced to make this change by Mr. Faulkner, our next door neighbor, who worked for Standard Coffee for many years. This was a hard time financially for Freeman and his wife. After a few years he went back to Mutual Savings until he was forced to retire due to illness. Most of the time with Mutual Savings and the coffee company he spent in Lawrence County selling insurance or coffee.

Her sister Sara Metts and Paul Link were children attendants and they are still living. Mr McNeill has been engaged in farming all his life and is now retired. Mrs McNeill has been a nurse's aid at Abbeville Memorial Hospital practically all her life in the maternity ward where she dressed all the newborn babies. They have a large family of boys and girls who have done well in their chosen professions. Mrs McNeill says they could not accumulate a large fortune for them and all they could do for their children was to give them a good education. That gift was better than fine gold. Teacher arrested on sex charges - By JUSTIN SCHOENBERGER/ jschoenberger@indexjournal.com Friday, June 25, 2010 12:18 AM EDT

A high school teacher who lives in Greenwood and is from Abbeville was arrested after Clinton police said he had sex with two students between 2008 and June 3. Darren Clark Atkins, 32, of 492 S. Mill Road, Greenwood, faces two counts of contributing to the delinquency of a minor - a misdemeanor. Both alleged victims were 16, the legal age of consent. According to warrants served Wednesday by South Carolina Law Enforcement Division agents, Atkins - a 1996 Abbeville High School graduate who is married and has two children - "engaged in sexual acts with a female student" inside a Clinton High School classroom and a Bell Street Middle School greenhouse, as well as inside a Clinton hotel room. SLED representatives said the allegations include sexual intercourse in both cases, which are based on witness statements and an investigation by the Clinton Department of Public Safety. "One of the parents came forward with concerns about some inappropriate relationships with (Atkins)," Clinton Department of Public Safety Police Chief Stacy Drakeford said of what triggered the investigation.

Waterloo women charged in Ware Shoals slaying

By FELICIA KITZMILLER/ fkitzmill@indexjournal.com

Sunday, February 14, 2010 11:54 PM EST Two Waterloo women have been arrested and charged with murder in the death of a 32-year-old Hodges man. Laurens County Sheriff's Office deputies were acting on a tip from a confidential informant when they discovered the body of Rodney Shane Babb in an abandoned trailer at 207 Jacqueline Dr. in Ware Shoals on Saturday afternoon, Laurens County Deputy Judy Stiles said. Angela Maree Langley, 26, and Stacey Nicole Patton, 19, have been charged with murder in connection with the death and were at the trailer with Babb's body when deputies arrived, Stiles said. Laurens County Sheriff Ricky Chastain said investigators think the two suspects picked the victim up Thursday night and brought him to the trailer owned by a member of Patton's family. The victim's car was found on Indian Mound Road in Ware Shoals, and he had possibly run out of gas. "Some time during the night we believe they shot the victim in the head and left the scene," Chastain said. A .380 caliber handgun, believed to be the murder weapon, has been recovered, he added. Friday the suspects rented a car in Greenwood and purchased cleaning supplies in Simpsonville, Chastain said. Laurens investigators received a tip on the murder Saturday morning and began surveillance on the two women, who led them to the trailer. Chastain said the suspects were inside the trailer with the victim and the cleaning supplies when deputies arrived. Though the motive for the murder is unclear, Chastain said the victim and Patton had a relationship. "We're not sure for how long, but for some time, but an off and on relationship," he said. Chastain said more charges are pending.

HODGES -- The family of 32-year-old Rodney "Shane" Babb is banding together for comfort and awaiting answers to the questions surrounding the man's slaying early Friday morning. Babb's body was discovered in an abandoned, secluded trailer by Laurens County deputies Saturday. Babb had a fatal gunshot wound to the head, and the two women charged with his murder, Angela Langley, 26, and Stacey Patton, 19, both of Waterloo, were in the trailer with the body when deputies arrived. So far, Babb's uncle, Mickey Boland, said the family has no more information than what has been made public by the Laurens County Sheriff's Office. They learned the identity of the suspects through WSPA-CBS and heard the first details of the case at the arraignment Sunday. "We know nothing," Boland, a Greenwood County Sheriff's deputy and former Ware Shoals police chief, said. "As of (Sunday), they were still working on the investigation." Babb was "still looking for his place in life," Boland said, but he will be remembered as someone who tried to do right. Boland said Babb had an on-again, off-again relationship with Patton for several months, but he didn't know her well. "He was a good boy with a good heart," he said. "It just proves to you, the people he hung around with are the ones who killed him." Boland, whose sister Susan is Babb's mother, said his family is no stranger to tragedy and has experienced the pain of a sudden loss before. Relatives have been gathering from across the country to support each other while they wait for answers. "We have complete confidence in Sheriff (Ricky) Chastain and the coroner's office and SLED," he said. "They've been working around the clock to make sure there's justice."

Report: Babb, 1 suspect argued about phone

By FELICIA KITZMILLER/ fkitzmill@indexjournal.com

Tuesday, February 23, 2010 12:13 AM EST

In the early morning the day before he was killed, Rodney Shane Babb had an argument with one of the women now accused in his death. Angela Langley, 26, and Stacey Patton, 19, both of Waterloo, have been charged with murder by Laurens County Sheriff's Office in connection with Babb's death. Investigators found both suspects in an isolated, abandoned trailer with Babb's body Feb. 13. At the time of her arrest, Langley told officers she shot Babb as he tried to assault Patton, with whom he had an on-again, off-again relationship, according to Laurens County

Sheriff Ricky Chastain. Chastain said investigators think Babb was shot in the early morning hours Feb. 12 and the suspects left the trailer. They returned Saturday with a rental car and cleaning supplies, presumably to clean up the the crime scene. According to an incident report from Ware Shoals Police Department, at 12:45 a.m. Feb. 11, Babb contacted Patton and asked her to come pick him up from where his vehicle had broken down. When she arrived they got into an altercation and she left him there. At about 1:45 a.m. Babb arrived at 26 Green Acres Blvd., where Patton was staying, and said she had his cell phone and he wanted it back. Patton said she didn't have the phone and didn't know where it was. At 2:15 a.m., Babb and Jillian Lagreca returned to the residence. Lagreca cursed at the victim and threatened to shoot her if the phone was not returned. Lagreca even pointed a handgun at the victim and fired it into the air three times. When the responding officer spoke with Lagreca, she denied pointing the gun at the victim, but said the victim would "get what she had coming to her," and she had a gun and she was "gonna get that little (expletive deleted)." Babb told the officer the victim had his phone and "he wanted it returned or things were going to get ugly." A warrant has been issued for Lagreca, Ware Shoals Police Chief Calvin Culbertson said, but there were no charges on Babb from the incident because the argument did not happen in front of the officer and was a matter of "he said, she said."

Notes for KOBE BRAXTON BURDETTE:

Baby afflicted with rare birth defect. By Henry E Green - Press & Banner June 19, 2002

Kobe Braxton Burdette was named after Kobe Bryant, the famous Los Angeles Lakers basketball star. The little boy with the unusual name has some unusual problems. Kobe Burdette, the son of Angie and Chris Burdette of Abbeville is 16 days old, and he already has several health problems, all of which together make up CHARGE Syndrome, which is a combination of different abnormalities affecting different systems of the body, from the eyes to the heart to the nose and possibly retarded growth and development. There are also genital and urinary abnormalities -- Kobe was born with one kidney, for example. CHARGE is an acronym standing for the collection of abnormalities which make up the illness - the E stands for ear abnormalities for example, said Angie. This package of abnormalities was diagnosed shortly after the youngster was born at Abbeville County Memorial Hospital. Kobe was sent to Self Regional, for a suspected malfunctioning of the nasal passages. "He couldn't breathe through his nose," she said. From Self, he was sent on to the Medical College of Georgia for further treatment. That's where he is currently, said Angie, who is staying at a motel in Augusta with her husband while her son undergoes treatment. The syndrome means that Kobe could have mental retardation later in his life, although they don't know just yet. Some kids experience retardation because of the syndrome, and some don't. Kobe was born with this condition, which may be the result of a chromosomal abnormality. He also may have vision and hearing problems as a result of his condition. Kobe has recently had heart surgery to correct his heart defects, and the surgery was reportedly successful. Nose surgery was scheduled for Monday, June 17 at the Medical College. The extent of his eye problems is not known yet. He may be simply far sighted or near sighted, or it could progress to blindness. CHARGE Syndrome occurs in about one in 10,000 to 12,000 births. If Kobe receives the proper treatment early enough, he could lead a normal life. While the Burdettes have insurance, Angie is not sure at this point how much it will cover. The Burdetts also have a daughter who is 18 months old -- Micalyn is perfectly healthy. Angie says that not that Kobe has made it through the heart surgery, the family is breathing a little more easily. "It was overwhelming at first," she said. To learn more about CHARGE Syndrome, one may look at several Web Sites, including www.chargesyndrome.com. Also, there is a fund at the Bank of Abbeville to help defray Kobe's medical expenses. For more information on the fund, one may call the Bank of Abbeville at 864-459-9676.

Missing woman's body found

An unidentified body found Saturday off of Brewers Bridge Road in Elberton has been identified as that of a woman reported missing on June 2. Elbert County Coroner Chuck Almond said Monday that the body had been identified as that of Anne Outz. Outz, 48, of 208 Highland Avenue in Elberton was reported missing on June 2. Elberton Police and the Georgia Bureau of Investigation had been looking for her and seeking information on her whereabouts for at least two weeks. Residents of a mobile home off of Brewers Bridge Road reported a body near their home Saturday. The residents told officials that an odor led them to the body. Officials were initially unable even to determine the gender of the body because of decomposition, they said. "We have had several hot days here lately and that probably contributed to the decomposing state of the body," Assistant Coroner Joe Colvard said. Colvard also said that officials were unable to determine if foul play was involved in the death. After the body was found, a forensic team from the Georgia Bureau of Investigation worked at the scene for seven hours before removing the body, Colvard said. Story created Jun 28, 2006 - 10:23:45 CDT.

Body identified matches woman missing for 4 weeks By Pearce Adams Anderson Independent-Mail June 27, 2006
ELBERTON — Almost four weeks after the reported disappearance of Anne Outz, authorities have identified Ms. Outz as the dead person discovered on Saturday, said Chuck Almond, Elbert County coroner. "We're now looking at it as a homicide investigation," said Fred Stephens, special agent in charge of the Georgia Bureau of Investigation's Athens office. An arrest has not yet been made, he said. "At this point, we don't believe this is a random act of violence," Mr. Stephens said, speaking Tuesday outside the Elbert County Sheriff's Office. Ms. Outz's body was discovered at about 2 p.m. Saturday in a wooded area near the Red Minnow Lighthouse restaurant on Brewer's Bridge Road outside Elberton. Edna Goodwin said her daughter had recently had pins removed from surgery on her leg, a result of a near-fatal accident about six years ago. "She liked to have died," Ms. Goodwin said. "She was a miracle. She said, 'I don't know why the Lord let me live. I guess He wasn't ready to let me go yet.'" Ms. Goodwin, recalling that accident, said medical personnel told her that her daughter's heart stopped twice during a trip to an Athens hospital. "They said she would never make it," Ms. Goodwin said. "But she was a fighter. She fought to stay alive." The Elbert County Sheriff's Office, Elberton Police Department, the GBI and the coroner are investigating the crime that killed Ms. Outz, Mr. Stephens said. But he declined to discuss the cause of Ms. Outz's death. "We have information, but we are not releasing it," Mr. Stephens said. "I hope they find what happened to her," Ms. Goodwin said. An autopsy was conducted Monday at the state crime lab. Previous medical records provided by Mr. Almond led to the identification of Ms. Outz, who lived at 208 A Highland Ave. in Elberton, Mr. Stephens said. Hope Goodwin is one of Ms. Outz's biological daughters but was adopted and raised by Edna Goodwin. "Anne was more like a sister to me," Hope Goodwin said. "She was always a friendly person, never met a stranger and would talk to anybody. She'd talk their ears off." Now that Ms. Outz has been identified as a homicide victim, investigators are asking for the public's help in tracing Ms. Outz's activity between June 1 and June 4, Mr. Stephens said. "I urge her friends to call," he said. "We need their help." Ms. Outz lived in a two-story duplex in a quiet neighborhood a few blocks from downtown Elberton. There was no activity around the building on Tuesday. Nearby, carpenters were nailing a wood porch to Fred Herndon's house. Even though Mr. Herndon has lived in the house for about a month, he recalled seeing Ms. Outz shortly before her disappearance. "I saw her walking up the street and spoke to her," he said. Mr. Herndon said he had not really known Ms. Outz, but Tuesday he recalled hearing an argument at her apartment. Mr. Stephens said Ms. Outz was reported missing on June 12, but there are no reports of anyone seeing Ms. Outz after June 2. Ms. Goodwin said she saw her daughter on June 2 before traveling to a North Carolina graduation. Even though she "checked on her every day," Ms. Goodwin said she had believed that her daughter's disability kept her from coming to the door during a subsequent visit. "She was missing, and I didn't know it," she said. "When I came back, I got uneasy and reported her to the police." Elberton woman missing June 15, 2006 Authorities are searching for an Elberton woman who has been missing since June 2.

Anne Outz, 48, was reported missing by her mother, Edna Goodwin, a 71-year-old Elberton resident, on Monday. Ms. Goodwin told police that her daughter had been missing since receiving a check June 2. According to the police report, Ms. Goodwin told authorities that her daughter had been beaten by her boyfriend. Police located Ms. Outz's purse in her apartment, but found no sign that she had been there recently. Anne Outz is described as being a Caucasian woman, 5 feet 7 inches, 120 pounds, brown hair, with blue eyes. Anyone with any information is encouraged to contact the Elberton police department at (706) 213-3130.

Body identified as missing woman June 27, 2006 A body found Saturday in Elbert County, Ga., has been identified as the same woman that was reported missing earlier this month. Anne Outz, 48, of Elberton, died as a result of a homicide, said Fred Stephens, special agent in charge of Georgia Bureau of Investigations, Athens office. Ms. Outz's body was found at 2 p.m. Saturday in a wooded area off Brewers Bridge Road near Ga. 77. Investigators have declined to reveal the cause of death. No arrests have been made in the case.

Notes for KATHERINE ASHLEY MCALISTER:

New Triplets Expected to Attend NICU Reunion June 25 - Dusty (left) and Ashley New of Greenwood along with their triplets, from left: Langley, Bryce and Dayne. Four months following their birth, Ashley said she still contacts the nurses in the Self Regional Healthcare Neonatal Intensive Care Unit when she has questions concerning the triplets' care. NICU graduates like the New triplets are invited to a NICU reunion from 10 a.m. to noon Saturday, June 25 at Self Regional Healthcare. Posted on Thu, Jun 09, 2011 Being pregnant for the first time can be one of the most exciting experiences for a woman. However, when that baby turns out to be triplets with a risk of birth complications, that exciting experience can develop into a frightening situation for some. Ashley and Dusty New of Greenwood experienced this scenario firsthand when they realized Ashley, pregnant with triplets, would need to deliver six weeks early. The mother-to-be was originally commuting to Greenville for prenatal care. But when a friend who had previous experience with the Self Regional Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU) highly recommended it, the News decided to make a visit. "It was the best decision we could have made," said Ashley. The fact that Self Regional has a Level III NICU available was a strong influence on their decision. "I was unaware that Self had a Level III NICU until my friend, Jennifer (Lippens) recommended us, and I knew it would be better to stay in Greenwood in case something were to happen," Ashley added. The availability of a Level III NICU may have eased some apprehension, but the News remained nervous about a possible emergency C-section. "I was nervous about going into labor if they didn't have staff ready to help the babies," said Ashley. When the triplets were born Feb. 8, however, the anxiety subsided. "We could not have asked for a better staff," she noted. "Everyone involved was great." The babies, delivered by Dr. John Russell of Greenwood Obstetrics and Gynecology, were all born weighing around four pounds each. All three were immediately admitted to the NICU. "As higher multiple pregnancies such as triplets have increased risk of pre-maturity birth abnormalities and other obstetrical complications, it is of utmost importance to have a high level NICU," Dr. Russell said. "This ensures the best neurodevelopment outcome possible for these infants." During the 18 days that the newborns were in the hospital, a team of neonatologists, respiratory therapists and nurses closely monitored them. "We truly had a wonderful experience," Ashley said. "They kept us informed about the babies and educated us on how to care for them when they left the hospital." The News also expressed their pleasure with the courtesy of the staff toward family members. "They were very cooperative with family members visiting the babies, which was extremely important to us," she said. Four months later, the New triplets--Langley, Bryce and Dayne--all weigh more than 12 pounds each. "I still call the nurses sometimes with questions and they are always happy to help, Ashley reported. When asked if they would have any more children, the News sound doubtful. "No more kids for us," Ashley responded. "God blessed us with three healthy children. We couldn't ask for anything more!" According to marchofdimes.com, more than 90 percent of triplets are born premature and are often "high-risk" babies. The good news for Lakelands area residents is Self Regional has the only NICU located between Greenville and Columbia. Every two years, Self Regional hosts a reunion for the babies that were in the NICU, or "graduates". This year the reunion will be held Saturday, June 25, from 10 a.m. until noon on the patio outside the hospital's Veranda Cafe. "The staff is looking forward to seeing all the NICU babies and how they've grown since their discharge," said Director of Neonatology Dr. Terry Marshall, who will be on hand to greet the graduates and their families.

Notes for AIDEN DAVIS:

Son of an Abbeville officer battles gastroschisis - Aiden Davis on March 17, one day after he was born at Greenville Memorial Hospital. Davis is the son of Ryan Davis and Kayla Summer and had surgery 30 minutes after his birth to address gastroschisis, a condition which included his intestines being outside of his body when he was born. (Contributed photo)

By JUSTIN SCHOENBERGER/ jschoenberger@indexjournal.com Tuesday, May 18, 2010 12:14 AM EDT ABBEVILLE -- When he was 30 minutes old, Aiden Davis underwent the first surgery of his young life. Not that the half-hour before that was any less traumatic: He was born March 16 at Greenville Memorial Hospital with an abdominal wall defect called "gastroschisis," meaning he essentially had a hernia-type area in utero. Aiden's intestines - twisted and perforated - were on the outside of his body when he was born, requiring a temporary colostomy shortly after his premature birth. At the age of 4 weeks, he had another surgery to close the area of his body left open by the colostomy - and picked up bacterial meningitis shortly thereafter, about two weeks before he was supposed to visit his Abbeville home for the first time. "He is doing well now," Aiden's grandmother, Alison Latham, said last week. "He made it through that critical phase, but it will be a few more days of antibiotics and then another spinal tap to see if the meningitis is cleared up." Aiden is the first child of Ryan Davis, an Abbeville City police officer, and Kayla Summer, a recent Lander University graduate. "The whole experience of having a child is amazing," Davis, 24, said. "It's a love that I didn't know. "But with all these problems involved, it's the scariest thing, the saddest thing, the happiest thing to ever happen to me." Davis said it's now looking like his son's homecoming is several months away - and even then, the battle will be far from over. "That's been the scariest part of it all for us," Davis said of finding out about the meningitis, which is potentially fatal. "It made his head swell. ... The way they explained it to us, it was like he was having severe migraines ? sensitive to light and noise." Davis continued: "It may have caused nothing. They might have caught it in time ... but it could cause anything from mental retardation to learning disorders to a loss of motor skills to death. We didn't know how severe it was going to be. ... We're hoping now they caught it in time - the doctors are telling us that we may not know until he starts school what effects it may or may not have had on his brain." Davis added he's been in some "pretty hairy" situations in his nearly three years with the police department, but nothing compares to this. Summer, 22, agreed. "(Aiden) having the gastroschisis and being born with his intestines out really wasn't that big of a deal as long as they put it back in and sew him up and everything works the way it should," she said. "But that's almost impossible, from what the doctors said - usually there is some kind of problem to follow." Summer continued: "You want your child to be perfect. You don't want anything to be wrong with him. If (gastroschisis) had been it, I guess I could have taken it. But when he got the bacterial meningitis, that was probably the scariest thing we've been through." Although there is the "Aiden Davis Fund" set up at Capital Bank to help the family with medical costs, it's the Ronald McDonald House of Greenville - where Latham has been staying since her son was born - Davis said needs donations.
