Hezekiah Ingram and Henry INGRAM were witnesses to the will of my ancestor Frederick LEE who died in 1814. On the 1810 census of Chester County Hugh INGRAM was listed next to our LEE family. Frederick's wife was Susanah Ingram. I don't know the relationship of all these Ingrams, but would like to find out, as they are my ancestors, too. Thanks

If Ingram can be assumed to be a variant spelling of Ingleman, there was an early Ingleman's mill on either Wilkinson's or Terrible Creek (now Free's) in the SW part of Fairfield. Ingleman's wife Sarah (formerly married to Free) is famous for having been tortured by her neighbors in around 1790 as a witch (she tried to sue them for damages so the records are extant). So often the spellings of names were varied according to how the hearer heard them pronounced. Just a hunch here!
