

3/19/98

Mabel Boykin Freeman

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - Mabel Boykin Freeman, died Sunday, March 1, 1998 at home.

Services conducted by Rev. Donnie Garris were held Wednesday, March 4, 1998 at Antioch Baptist Church of Charlotte. Burial followed in New Zion A.M.E. Zion Church Cemetery of Winnsboro.

Born in Winnsboro, she was the oldest child of the late Minnie Boykin Russell and the late Willie B. Boykin. She received her education in South Carolina and taught in the school system there for a number of years. She was a member of Antioch Baptist Church in Charlotte, N.C.

Surviving are husband, Rev. C.M. Freeman Sr. of Charlotte; daughter, Margaret E. Freeman of Charlotte; son, Coleman M. Freeman Jr. of Charlotte; granddaughter Colsaria Monique Freeman of Louisville, Ky.; four sisters, Martha B. Carter of Flushing, N.Y., Nan B. Feaster of Philadelphia, Pa., Margaret B. Gill of Greensboro, N.C., and Eleanor B. Oliphant of Great Neck, N.Y.; three brothers, James B. Boykin of Winnsboro, William B. Boykin of Great Neck, N.Y. and Herman Bagley of Philadelphia, Pa.; one niece; four nephews; and other relatives.

Grier Funeral Service was in charge of arrangements.