Dear Mr. Cook,

The following Gibsons were listed in a local census taken in Fairfield District, 1829; Jarvis*, John, Jacob, Jarvis*, Sr., Stephen, Sr., Minor, Stephen, Jr., Dolly, Abel, Henry, David, Elijah, Abel, Jr., William. Also, in the same book, "History of Fairfield County, South Carolina," by Fitz Hugh McMaster, 1946 (Out of Print) there is a listing of Heads of Families, 1790 which includes the following Gibsons; William, Jacob, Gervais*, Isaac, Jacob, Wilson, Joseph, Abraham and Stephen.

Dr. Buford S. Chappell, 2011 Hampton Street, Columbia, S.C. 29204 has published a book, "The Chappell Family in Early South Carolina", which in its 100 pages contains much informatio . Whether he sells it or not I do not know; you may wish to inquire.

I have included a map^{on} which I have marked Gibson data and two folders.

If you wish more information please let me know. The Museum would appreciate a donation of $1.00 for the map and postage.

Sincerely,

William Wilson Taylor, Curator
