

John H. Gibson

1866-1938

John was born a few years after slavery in 1866. He was a farmer and a grocery store owner. He was to be a man of strong will power, a man who stood on integrity and always took pride in fair and honest dealing with his fellowman. His long and arduous life stands as a challenge to all the race of Fairfield County Community.