Dear Mrs. Arnette:

I noticed your query in the December issue of "THE CHESTER COUNTY GENEALOGICAL BULLETIN," about the Gladden -Wylie - Gibson information, and I am sorry that I didn't answer you sooner. I think that the enclosed document, which was an Equity Roll # 349, Filed 6 March 1866, might help answer your problem.

Jesse Gladden, Sr., who was md. to Nelly () Gladden was the descendant and father of Mary Gladden, who was md. to Captain Henry Gibson. After Mary died, Henry Gibson migrated to Louisville, Winston County, Miss., and is buried there. This Mary Gibson was a daughter of Mary (Gladden) Gibson and Capt. Henry Gibson. Mary (Gibson) md. James David, in Fairfield County, S.C., before moving to Miss. S.C. in 1821. Jesse Gladden, Sr. d. in Fairfield County, S.C. in 1821
The enclosed document lists the heirs of Dorcas (Gladden) (Hall) Montgomery. The brothers and sisters. Some were deceased, but she listed the names of their children. You will find the names of Mary (Gladden) Gibson and Capt. Henry Gibson's children. Their names are:

Catherine Gibson
Tillman Gibson
Wade Gibson
Mrs. Matilda Wylie
Mrs. Arabella Murray, wife of George Murray- living out of State
Mary Davis, wife of James Davis, living out of state.

When Mrs. Josie Worthy Holman, of Louisville, Winston County, Miss., printed her tombstone records of Winston County. She gives the following on Mary (Gibson) Davis and her father, Capt. Henry Gibson. He was born in S.C.- 13 March 1786, d. Oct. 16, 1880/ aged 94 years, 7 months and 3 days. Mary (Gibson) Davis, Wife of James D. I am a native of Winston County, Miss. My parents were natives of Chester County, S.C. I have also been to Chester many times, and I worked in Union, S.C., before WW II. I have many lines in Chester County, as both my parents descend from the Carter - and Wilkes line. My other lines: Chalk, Hardin, Cornwell, Colvin, Estes, Elam's, Kirkpatrick, etc. My mother was a Gladden.

I hope that this bit of information might help you.

Sorry that I have been slow in getting this off to you.

Jesse Gladden also had a son, William, who d. in 1828, unmd., + intestate
Sincerely,
If I can help you I will share my records - I have a copy of Wm's probate records as Jesse's
