

South Carolina

At the Request of Mr. Hugh Gladney I have this day resurveyed the above described land and find it to contain one hundred and ninety acres, it being the tract on which the stone house stands, being parts of the real estate of Richard Gladney deceased. Situate in Fairfield District of on the chains of Jacksons Creek waters of Broad River and on the Road leading from Bells Bridge on Little River to Columbia. Having such form marks and boundaries as the above plat represents. The Triangle marked A is called the vacant piece and contains Twenty two and $\frac{3}{4}$ Acres.

Surveyed The 21st September 1848

Jacob Treaster
Surveyor

66

20

1320