Also, he would like to return the old headstones to the descendents of these soldiers. Any information or help that can be provided to Cmt. #### South Carolina Genealogical Society Archives

by - John L Andrews, Jr. Archivist

The Archives of the South Carolina Genealogical Society are currently housed at the Hartsville Genealogical Research Library, home of the Old Darlington District Chapter, S.C.G.S. The Research Library is located at 114 South Fourth Street in Hartsville, in the old Hartsville Train Depot. The Archivist of the Society is required to retain custody of the all official documents relating to the incorporation of the Society and to receive, house, and to make available to researchers all genealogical donations.

One source of genealogical information of interest to researchers, is the large collection of newsletters housed in the S.C.G.S. Archives. Chapters of the S.C.G.S. are asked to put a copy of each newsletter published into our collection. These newsletters and journals contain a wide variety of genealogical abstracts from all areas of the state. Most newsletters also contain queries from researchers interested in South Carolina genealogy. Back issues of the CAROLINA HERALD are also housed in the S.C.G.S. Archives.

A wide variety of published family histories are also available at the S.C.G.S. Archives. Recent acquisitions into the collection include: FREDERICK BROCK, 1719-1807, HIS AMERICAN FAMILY; THE LADSON FAMILY OF S.C. AND GEORGIA, 1678-1900; GLENN AND KINN; LIFE AND TIMES OF REV. JOHN G. LANDRUM; DESCENDANTS OF WILLIAM CUNNINGHAM OF FANQUIER CO., VA AND GREENVILLE CO., SC; OUR ALL SOUTHERN FAMILY (Barfield, Barnett, Bayne, and Gresham Families); NATHANIEL BUTLER BANKS AND ANNA BARBARA ARTMAN; WYATT HALL OF EDGEFIELD CO., SC; ANCESTORS AND DESCENDANTS OF HANCOCK D. SUDDATH AND JEMIMA WHALEY ETHEREDGE; CLARK FAMILY HISTORY; CROMER FAMILY; MAULDIN-REED FAMILIES; THE SC BROWNLEES; JACKSONS OF NORTH PACOLET: DESCENDANTS OF SAMUEL JACKSON, SR.; and THE FAMILY AND DESCENDANTS OF JONATHAN NEWMAN.

A budget was recently approved by the S.C.G.S. Board of Directors for the operation of the Archives. This budget will be used to better store and make available the various research materials in the S.C.G.S. Archives. Genealogical materials housed in the S.C.G.S. Archives are available during the hours the Hartsville Genealogical Research Library is open. Currently these hours are: Mondays, 1:00 - 5:00 p.m.; Fridays, 1:00 - 5:00 p.m.; Saturdays, 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m., and Sundays, 2:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. The Research Library is closed most holidays. Donations of family histories and genealogies, abstracts of state and county records, county histories and local history, church histories, etc. are gladly accepted. ### Confederate Dead - Madison C. H., Va

 Christopher S. Prince 1853 Little Egypt Rd., Whitmire, SC 29178. This was copied exactly as printed

Messrs Editors: - While on a visit to Madison C. H., Va, recently, I was detained 24 hours at Gordonsville, and being informed that many Confederate dead were buried there, I, in company with Rev.
 Dr. Handy and Rev. H. M. Linney, visited their neglected graves for the purpose of shedding a tear of sorrow over the resting place of my brave and honored countrymen, a tear of regret over a lost cause, and a tear of sympathy for the relatives and friends of those heroes of the South.

We found these graves so much neglected, the head-boards so rotten, and the marking so defaced, that it is already impossible to read the names of many of them, so I thought it would be a good work to gather the names of all the South Carolinians I could find, and publish them for the benefit of friends. In a short time it will be impossible to find any particular grave.
