

Dr. J.R. Green named Super of Year

Barbara Ball
Publisher

COLUMBIA - Fairfield County School District Superintendent, Dr. J.R. Green, has been named the 2021 South Carolina Superintendent of the Year by the South Carolina Association of School Administrators (SCASA).

"I have had the pleasure of working with Dr. Green as a school board member and as a parent," said Fairfield County School Board Chair William Frick. "Dr. Green talked about having a 'culture change' in the Fairfield County School District...Our students graduate with two years of college as they graduate from high school, overall test scores are

See Green page 9