

James Walker Green, Jr.

US Army WWII

Eldest child of James W. Green, Sr.

WINNSBORO - Funeral services for James Walker Green Jr., 90, will be held at 2:30 P.M. Monday, Jan. 31, 2005, at the Crooked Run Baptist Church, conducted by Rev. Tommy Hutto and Rev. Weldon L. Estes, EDD. Burial will follow at 4 P.M. in Elmwood Cemetery, Columbia. Visitation will be 6-8 P.M. Sunday, at Pope Funeral Home, Winnsboro.

Mr. Green of 285 Agnew Road, Winnsboro, died Friday, Jan. 28, 2005, at 11:45 P.M. at the Palmetto Baptist Center after a long battle with G.I.S.T. Cancer.

Mr. Green , born in Chamblee, Ga., June 15, 1914, was the son of the late James W., Sr. and Mamie Fereba Roberts Green and grandson of Cecil Montgomery Green Sr. and Nancy Ann Sims of Lawrenceville, GA and Green H. Roberts and Linnie Adeline Spence of Ware Co. GA.

He was a member of Crooked Run Baptist and was an Electronics Technician and had retired from F.A.A. He was a veteran of WW II, serving in the Army Signal Corp in the Canal Zone. He was a former deacon, a member of the American Legion and the Sons of the Confederate Veterans.

He is survived by a son, James W. Green , III, of Winnsboro; a brother, John Spence Green of Nicholls, GA. and his children, Mary Alice, Leah and Larry; sisters, Ethel G. Mickelson of Baudette, MN and her children, Matthew Jr., Craig, Tom Peggy and Jim; sister, Peggy G. Simpson of Hapeville, GA and her children, Joann and Billy; sister, Lois G. Meeks of Eatonton, GA and her children, Madge, Nan, Bob and Mimi and Bonnie Mercer Anderson (niece), daughter of the late sister, Edna G. Mercer of Calhoun, GA.

State, The (Columbia, SC)

Date: January 30, 2005