

Jessie Green

PHILADELPHIA, PA - Jessie Green, 65, died Saturday, Sept. 19, 1998.

Services conducted by the Rev. Clifford H. Cutter were held Saturday, Sept. 26, 1998 at Cornerstone Baptist Church in Philadelphia, Pa. Burial followed in Mt. Peace Cemetery.

Pallbearers were nephews.

Flowerbearers were nieces and members of the Trustee Aids.

Born Oct. 3, 1932 in Blair, she was the daughter of the late Alexander and Susie Thompson. She was educated in the public school system in Fairfield County and she attended St. Matthew's Church in Blair. She relocated to Philadelphia and married McArthur Green. She was a member of Cornerstone Baptist Church for 40 years. She was President of the Trustee Aids and a mentor to the youth. She was an avid supporter of the Sanctuary Choir and was recently appointed by Pastor Cutter to head the Scholarship Committee.

She was very active in her community, where she served as block captain of the 1700 block of 60th Street. She retired from the Philadelphia Board of Education in 1993. She worked at Overbrook High School for 25 years.

Surviving are her husband, McArthur; two daughters, Linda and Donna; two sons, Stanley and Arthur; seven grandchildren, Andre, Tee, Tiffany, Crystal, Terrance, Tasha and Daniel; four great-grandchildren; four sisters, Nina Kinard and Susie Trezvant; Carrie Wright and Thelma Mills of Philadelphia; two brothers, Johnnie Thompson and Alexander Thompson; 15 brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, a godson, Michael Montgomery; and other relatives.

Baker Funeral Home of Philadelphia, Pa. was in charge of arrangements. 10/29/98