

Bert Hall

WINNSBORO - Bert Hall, 86, died Saturday, Sept. 13, 1997.

Services conducted by the Rev. T.G. Green were held Wednesday, Sept. 17, 1997 at Mt. Pilgrim Baptist Church in Blackstock. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were deacons of Mt. Pilgrim Baptist Church and flowerbearers were members of the missionary society of Mt. Pilgrim Baptist Church.

Born in Fairfield County April 6, 1911, he was the son of the late Henry Hall and Sara Chilsom Hall. He was a member of Mt. Pilgrim Baptist Church and served on the Deacon Board and was a member of A.P. & B. Lodge #12. He received his education in the Fairfield County public school system.

Survivors are his wife, Leatha Hall; sons James Hall of Winnsboro and Willie Hall of Moore Haven, Fla.; daughters Mary Foster and Linda Foster, both of Baltimore, Md., and Georgianna Watkins of Winnsboro; 23 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; five great-great-grandchildren; sisters-in-law, Mary Hall of Chester, Jessie Bell McVay, Irene Wesley, Roxanna Adgers and Beatrice English, all of Winnsboro, Daisy Lightner of Baltimore, Md. and Lucy Brown of Blackstock; a son-in-law Huey Watkins of Winnsboro; a daughter-in-law, Estelle Hall of Baltimore, Md., Margaret Hall of Winnsboro, and Dale Hall of Moore Haven, Fla; brothers-in-law, William English of Winnsboro, Joe Willie Brown of Blackstock and Tommy Lee Lightner of Baltimore, Md.; nieces; nephews; and other relatives.

Two sons preceded him in death.

Glover's Memorial Chapel was in charge of arrangements.

HERALD INDEPENDENT. 9/25/97