

Beulah H. Hall

PALERMO, NJ - Beulah H. Hall, 81, died Monday, March 20 at her home.

Funeral services were held Saturday, March 25 at Macedonia United Methodist Church in Ocean City, NJ. Burial followed in Seaside Cemetery in Palermo.

Born in Winnsboro, Mrs. Hall had been a resident of Palermo for 10 years.

She was a graduate of Ridgeview High School in Hickory, NC, Class of 1936, attended Barber Scotia College in North Carolina, and received her bachelor's degree from Morgan State University in Baltimore, MD, and her masters degree in reading education from Winthrop University in Rock Hill in 1974.

Mrs. Hall had been a teacher at McCrorey Liston High School for more than 34 years, teaching three generations of families, before her retirement in 1981.

She was an active member of the Upper Township Senior Citizen Center in Palermo, and had been a member of the Order of the Eastern Star, Clemson Club and Calvary Presbyterian Church, all in South Carolina. She was currently a member of Macedonia United Methodist Church in Ocean City, NJ.

She was predeceased by two husbands, Proffit I. Robertson and Charles Hall.

Surviving are a son, Leroy Robertson of Palermo; a daughter, Lila Mae Brice of Columbia; four grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; and two very special former students in her life, Christine Reese of Elgin and Sheriff Herman Young of Winnsboro.

Godfrey Funeral Home of Palermo was in charge of the arrangements.