*Thou wilt shew me the path of life; in thy presence is fullness of joy; at thy right hand
there are pleasures for evermore.
Psalm 16:11*

You're just in time for tea with Palmetto Pathways. Tea-Time will be celebrated from two O'Clock p.m. until four p.m. at the home of Marvin and Mary Ellen Hall 623 Hilltop Acres Drive on Sunday, October twenty one. The staff of Palmetto Pathways will be honored by the Halls. Palmetto Pathways held Grand Opening during Hillarity 2005 at their office 128 Main Street, Chester South Carolina. All proceeds from the Hillarity sales held in the Da Vega Building at the above address were donated to Lowry's Baptist Church. Antique Furniture was delivered to the church by Mr. Frank Stephenson, and his daughter Nancy Stewart was in charge of arrangements, and planning room decor for the social building. Mrs. Frances Stephenson directed the program and the playground was also donated. John Feaster videoed the historic event, and presented a video to President of Palmetto Pathways, Mary Ellen Hall. Nancy Stewart of Founders Federal Credit Union was Chairman of The Lowry's Church Playground Project; A very successful event!

Come along and walk with me
Down the path that leads to my family tree:
The leaves grow from my Mother's genealogy:
Lauderdale, Lemmon and Lyles, and are linked by my father's side, Weir, Montgomery.
The tree is blessed with longevity!
My father's name was Samuel LeRoy Montgomery,
He Married my Mother, who is a living legacy.
Born in the year 1912 to Edward Lee Stevenson and Annie Amanda Stone of Lebanon, SC. Her name is Minnie Lee.
Her brother's were Coleman, Edward Lee and Marion Stevenson.
Her Sisters, all still living, are Ann Stevenson Dixon of Hartsville SC, Erleen Stevenson Bankhead of Mountain Gap
Road, a retired teacher of Chester, SC, and twin sisters
Margaret Stevenson Kelly of Adgers Road, Winnsboro, SC
and Marie Stevenson Burley of Monticello, SC. Annie Aman

Psalm 16:11*

On the hills of Lebanon
Where the tall cedars stand,
My father built our home
in the green pastureland.
There above the banks of Jackson Creek
He tilled the land and planted seeds.
At harvest time,
we gathered the corn, collards, and beans.
In our country kitchen,
Mother made good use of these.
In the summertime we had Charleston
watermelon to eat,
Our Lebanon picnics were such a treat!
Mother's home cooking,
Couldn't be beat!
Our family was blessed with Will and Lee,
Two grandsons are standing tall.
In their lives, The rose still grows beyond the wall.
In Memory of my father, Leroy Montgomery, (1912-1992)
Lovingly penned by his daughter, Mary Ellen Hall.
