

Catawba Area Pathways Inc.
Home Of Top of the Hill Art Studio
128 Main Street
Chester, South Carolina

Corporate Attorney, April Counterman
CPA Charles Montgomery
Advisor, Eleanor Whitesides Jones
Advisor, Pat Dennis Upcountry Antiques
Advisory Council Chairman :
Jane Van Aukeen, Chester County Librarian
Ads by BB and C Copy Express
Fran and Samantha Dodds
Chester News and Reporter
Catawba Area Pathways Board Of Directors:
Joyce Baker, Angela Barton, RN
Lois Hall, Rita Harper, Becky Tinker,
Beverly Grant, Bill and Kirsten Thraikill
Sandy Thraikill, Elliott and Lavinia Weir

Pathways are a non-profit privately funded Organization that promotes activities of the Chester County Senior Services Inc, and the LeRoy Springs Senior Games. Scholarships have been awarded to Anna Kate Hardin who scored 1600 on her SAT. Anna will enter Clemson University in August of 2005. A permanent award, in honor of Colleen Littlejohn, Director of Chester County Games and the Leroy Springs Golden Age Club of Chester, SC.

Pathways Inc. sponsored Senior Games in addition, Mary Ellen Hall read the senior Creed at the September 2004 meeting. Mary Ellen is a member of the Board of Directors of Chester County Senior Services Inc. and serves on the Advisory Council of the Senior Companion Program, directed by Frances Stephenson of Chester, S.C. The Senior Volunteers meet at 128 Main Street, and one of the six offices Located there is named to honor Frances Stephenson, Project Director. Proceeds from Bake Sales, yard sales, Arts and Crafts Sales are donated to Senior Services Inc.

Catawba Area Pathways Inc. is a Welcome Center for The Olde English District of Chester SC and Historical Research Center for Hardin and Hall Inc. The Den is the home of Tiger Fans where Clemson gifts are sold. The Roost for the Gamecocks, serves as a Regional Office for Staff Training. The Rollins Art Studio will be donating Bingo Prizes and Care Baskets which will be to given to Palmetto, The McAliley Apts. And Morningside of Lancaster Assisted Living. Furniture is donated to churches, In addition, to The White Oak Nursing Home of Lancaster, SC. Funds are deposited at Founders Federal Credit Union Projects that are sponsored by the Pathways Foundation