

Reuben Hall
1792-1906

Reuben was one of the pioneers of Pine Grove Baptist Church in Great Falls, South Carolina. He was an ex-slave, who was born in the Crane Creek Section of Richland County. However, he spent most of his life in the Mitford Community, where he worked as a farmer and blacksmith on Jimmie Caldwell's Plantation. As A slave he helped to make the bricks for Bethesda Methodist Church. It was said, "...his life was a living example of love, sincere devotion and loyalty to God and his church". He died at the age of 114.
