Pierce:

Richard Pierce Sr
Richard Pierce Jr both emigrants , before 1624
Richard Pierce w Elizabeth living in the Corporation of ## James City on a neck of land on south side of Chickhominy River 1624(belived to be Jr.)
In 1636 ########## Richard Pierce Jr obtained 600 acres by grant on this same neck of land. Richard Nance(Emigrant 1620) lived on another neck of land just west of the Chickhominy on the James River, 1624. Thus the two families were near neighbors , 1624. (Richard in Corporation of Chas. City, Va)
William Nance (thought to be son of Richard above) md a Miss Tinsley, neice of Richard Pierce Jr. above. Through inheritance Miss Tinsley Nance recieved 150 acres of above grant and was combined with 370 acres previously granted William Nance, and was patented 1692 as Nances Neck.
Later in Randolph Co. N.C. we find at least 5 or 6 Pierce-Nance marriages among descendants of Daniel Nance Jr.

Hardin:

No record found of a Hardin-Nance marriage in Va. However the following indicates some connection among the two families.

Zachariah Sneed md. Martha Nance(##### Dau of William Nance-probably son of John & Jane Nance) They had a son James Snead, who had among other children, James Pleasant Snead & Bethenia Hardin Snead (The Older Sneads were in Pittsylvania Co Va. md. about 1763)
From Nance Memorial(1904) Josiah Crenshaw Nance, bn 1804 md his 2nd cousin Bethenia Hardin Snead, whos grandmother was Martha Nance, sister of ###### David Nance (father of William H & David Nance) Josiah being the son of William H Nance of Davidson Co Tenn. (David Nance Sr, murdered in Pittsylvania Co, 1780.)

It is not certian just who the following Nances descend from, but it is thought they all may be brothers and sons of David Nance Jr ? This group lived at one time in Rockingham Co. N.C. near the Henry & Pittsylvania County lines of Va. later found in Henry Co records, all Va Born.

David Nance b. 1792 Va.
Terrel " b. 1798 "
Hardin " b. 1796 " (lived to be 80 yrs, his mother was Molly B)
Pleasant " b. 1814 . . "
(named son, Hardin Nance)

(David Nance Jr of record in Pittsylvania Co. Va till about 1800, no further records)

Gen. D.E. III - Daniel Nance (b. about 1685) md. Elizabeth (d.about 1750)
Parents unknown. There was a Captain Thomas Nance on the James River in 1688, and a Thomas Nance, land owner in Prince George County, 1737, living next to Isham Eppes. There being no further records in Prince George Co. on a Thomas Nance of this age, it is assumed he died soon after 1737.

The given name of Thomas becomes most popular to the Daniel line, as well as the William-Ann line (see Book IV) from whence the writer is descended. It is my belief that Daniel, as well as William, has close family connections with this Thomas Nance.

There is other evidence to help justify this belief. Daniel Sr., Daniel Jr., and William predominate the Mecklenburg-Brunswick records (1737-1770's), all owning land on Janento Creek (Mecklenburg) as well as other lands near the Mecklenburg - Brunswick line. A study of the Mecklenburg and Brunswick County records contained in this book will reveal just how close these three families were.

Children: 1) Phebe (b.October 1712)
2) Eliza (b. 6 July 1719)
3) Elinor (b.9 Sept.1722)
4) Lucy (b. 24 Dec. 1729/31)
5) Daniel Jr. (b. c1706/08) There is no proof this is a son, but supporting records indicate such. He was born before births were recorded in Bristol Parish. There could be others?
