POEM

God saw the road was getting rough, the hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed her eyes and whispered, "Peace be thine."
Her weary hours, her days of pain, her weary nights are past.
Her ever patient, worn out frame has found sweet rest at last.

God gave us strength to face it
Courage to bear the blow.
But what it meant to lose you,
No one will ever know.

~ WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU ~

When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears,
And hug your sorrow to you through the years...

But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same.

Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,

And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near.
And never, never be afraid to die,
FOR I AM WAITING FOR YOU IN THE SKY!

Perhaps you stopped to visit us, sent a floral, card or simply made a call. Perhaps you heard of our bereavement and whispered a sincere prayer or maybe you expressed concern, and we were made aware. Friends are so very special, especially when they really care. Whatever your contribution, it has helped to make the inevitable more acceptable. From each of us to all of you ...

~ MISS ME BUT LET ME GO ~

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little but not too long - and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love we once shared
Miss me - but let me go.

For this is a journey that we must all take and each must go alone. It's all apart of the Master's plan a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart - go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
MISS ME - BUT LET ME GO!
