

Estelle Davis Harrison

RIDGEWAY - Estelle Davis Harrison, 79, died Tuesday, Sept. 25.

Funeral services were held Sunday, Sept. 30 at Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. Melvin Syphertt.

Burial followed in the church cemetery. Pallbearers were nephews. Floral bearers were nieces.

A native of Fairfield County, she was born April 16, 1922, a daughter of the late Herod Davis and Estelle Morris Davis Prio-leau.

She was a retired nurse's assistant.

She was a member of Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church, where she served as a leader of the Gospel Choir, president of the Missionary Society, secretary of the Baptist Association and treasurer of the Sunday school.

She was a member of the NAACP.

Surviving are a daughter and son-in-law, Elizabeth and Carnell Murphy of Ridgeway; a loving sister, Mary D. White of Charlotte, NC; a special niece, Terry Lowery and her husband, Allen, of Ocean Springs, MS; a special friend, Willie L. Butler of Ridgeway; a beloved friend, Alice V. Davis; and caregiver, Gertrude Gibson, both of Ridgeway; four grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; guardian of Ike Wright of Ridgeway; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other loving family members.

Russell-McCutchen Funeral Home of Winnsboro was in charge of the arrangements.