With fitting ceremonies at Long Cane Cemetery, Friday Afternoon.

Impressive ceremonies attendant upon the unveiling of a bronze marker at the grave of James Cameron, soldier of the Revolutionary War, were held Friday afternoon, May 17, at Long Cane Cemetery, five miles north of West Point on the LaGrange Highway, by the Chattahoochee Chapter, D. A. R.

This INDEX includes an alphabetical listing of descendants, or spouses of these descendants, of John and Elizabeth Hawthorn of Fairfield County South Carolina. This information is in the computer files of Jerry Hawthorne.

The first number to right of the person's name is the RIN (record information number) number. This number identifies the record number in the computer file. The next number is the MRIN (marriage record information number) number. This identifies the record number for the marriage and family information for that individual. These family group sheets (MRIN) are available upon request from Jerry Hawthorne. The name to the far right is the name of the father or the spouse of the person listed. If the name is preceded by a *, then the name is the father of the listed individual.

The DESCENDANCY CHART included with this index includes the RIN number for each individual listed. The RIN number is the number listed directly after the persons surname. The next (enclosed) number is the date of birth and death, if available.
