

1963
W. L. Haynes, 83,
Fairfield Native,
Dies in Sumter

William Leon Haynes, 83, died at his home in Sumter on Monday night.

He was born in Longtown, a son of the late William J. and Nancy Jane Stewart Haynes.

Mr. Haynes was owner of the Haynes Shoe Shop in Sumter. He was first married to Miss Glennie Porter, who died in 1923.

He later married Miss Carrie McIlfain, who survives, with the following children by his first marriage; two sons, W. E. of Martinsville, Va., and Durward Haynes of Sumter; three daughters, Mrs. W. I. Gunter of Stuart, Va., Mrs. H. L. Standal of El Paso, Texas, and Mrs. J. E. Jennings of Sumter; also five sisters, Mrs. A. R. Smarr, Mrs. O. S. Miller and Mrs. J. D. McMeekin of Winnsboro, Mrs. Mamie Isenhower of Apopka, Fla., and Mrs. Charles Harris of Lafayette, Ga.

Funeral services were conducted in Sumter on Wednesday from the the chapel of the Shelley-Brunson Funeral Home. Interment was in Oaklawn Cemetery.