'Replacement' Tombstone for Agness H Leavell
(tombstone carved sometime after 1925)

Note: Agnes died in 1861 and was buried in the (Old) Bethel Cemetery. Sometime after 1925, this 'replacement stone' was placed beside her son William's tombstone (1861-1925) in current Bethel Cemetery. Presumably Agness' body was not exhumed from the (Old) Bethel Cemetery.

Both Bethel Baptist Church building and associated cemetery were moved to the crest of Bethel Hill about 1880. Prior to this time, the church building and cemetery were located about 200 yards 'down the hill' toward Ralph from their current location. A limestone tombstone would have disintegrated within a few decades because of the acidic soil conditions. Few tombstones in this abandoned cemetery have survived the weathering and acidic effects of the soil.

Author's research indicates that five (5) of Ann Ella Henderson Collier's grandparents were buried in the Old Bethel Baptist Church Cemetery between 1845 and 1873. With one exception (i.e., tombstone of Mrs Agness R Stephens - wife of William Franklin Henderson), none of these tombstones have survived to the present day.

Since Agness H Leavell died in 1861, she was buried in the Old (& now abandoned) Bethel Baptist Church Cemetery. Her tombstone is in good shape and was likely carved and placed in its current location sometime after 1925 (i.e., after her son died). Author noticed a significant number of tombstones in Bethel (also at Beulah) Baptist Church Cemetery which are 'replacements' for the original tombstones. Author has not searched who was responsible for such replacements.

Joseph Leavell married Amanda Missouri Hales after Agness' early death. Following individuals were descendants of that marriage. These individuals are not 'blood-relations' of the Henderson lineage but some of them may have intermarried with Henderson descendants.

1. Annie L Leavell (20Mar1871-14Feb1889)

| Mother: Agness Robinson Henderson (1836-1861) | Mother: Melissa A ?? (1830-1902) | Mother: Dorinda Steed (1825-) |
| | Children | No Children |
| | 1. Martha "Mattie" Ann Leavelle (1888-1966) | |
| | 2. Minnie Velma Leavell (1890-1966) | |

Nancy Elizabeth Cockrell was the granddaughter of Joseph H Cockrell Sr (1774-1853). Joseph's son, Thomas Burton Cockrell Sr moved to Mississippi about 1855 along with his son Thomas Burton Cockrell Jr. The middle name came from his mother Jane Burton. Nancy Elizabeth Cockrell lived in Neshoba, Mississippi per 1870 census and in Greene County with her great aunt per 1880 census. Nancy's parents (Thomas & Melissa) are buried in Prospect Cemetery in Newton, Mississippi.

Author photographed all tombstones in both Old and Current Bethel Baptist Church Cemeteries in February 2016. Findings include:

- 1) He did not photograph a tombstone for Nancy Elizabeth Cockrell.
- 2) Tombstones for William D Leavell, Agness Henderson Leavell (William's mother), and Kizzie Mize Leavell (his 2nd wife) were lying beside each other in Bethel Cemetery.
- 3) Author's research indicates that Agness Henderson Leavell was buried in the Old Bethel Cemetery upon her death in 1861. Her original (limestone) tombstone would have completely eroded within a few decades because of acidic soil conditions. A 'replacement' tombstone for Agness was carved and placed beside that of her son sometime following his death in 1925.

There is a significant 'disconnect' regarding birth date for Nancy Kizzie Mize. Census records indicate she was born in Oct 1859 while her tombstone in Bethel Baptist Church Cemetery indicates birth date of 6 Feb 1864. Since both 1870 and 1880 census indicates 1859 birth year, author suspects an error in date on the tombstone.

Author did not locate tombstone for Mary Agnes Cartee when he photographed tombstones in Beulah Baptist Church Cemetery in February 2017. Per Mr James Roebuck of Tuscaloosa, AL, Beulah congregation allowed large cedar trees to grow inside the cemetery boundaries to the point that numerous tombstones were destroyed. Jim stated he was aware that at least twenty (20) tombstones were replaced after these trees were removed - the roots of these huge trees are still apparent in the cemetery. Author found one of these discarded tombstones leaning against fence in SW corner of the cemetery in February 2017. His surprise was that this original tombstone was still legible but had been discarded when its replacement was installed in the cemetery.

Andrew Preston Phillips III was an Airman in U.S. Navy. Andrew was born 30Nov1959 and entered the navy with a residence in New Orleans, LA. He died of a non-hostile (e.g., auto accident) incident on 19Jul1980. Author suspects that Andrew III was a grandson of Andrew Preston Phillips Sr.
