FOREWORD

Volume II (of 5 volumes) is a compilation of vital statistics for more than 300 families who are direct descendants of Samuel Taylor Henderson (1803-1870) and Sydney Mayo Head (1820-). This book is specifically intended to help other Henderson family researchers get started with their own genealogical research by identifying most of their ancestors and relatives they will be dealing with. One effective way to get started would be to complete 'filling in the blanks' for any individual of whom you have relative information. Henderson family information was compiled from literally hundreds of sources who have published information on ancestry.com, find-a-grave.com, Mormon database, plus a variety of other online query sites. Author particularly wishes to thank several Henderson family researchers who granted him 'guest privileges' to their family tree on ancestry.com such that he could view information of living individuals. Without such access, it would have been impractical for author to identify the large number of younger Henderson families. Hopefully, this series of Henderson family reference books will encourage other Henderson descendants to learn more about their hard-working grandparents who were early pioneers in Alabama and Mississippi.

One caveat: There can be no assurance that any specific vital statistic in this book is either complete or accurate. For certain, there are some descendants not listed because author was unable to locate any online information regarding them - especially younger family members. For any error or omission the author apologizes and solicits your help in improving the book's accuracy and completeness. After all, family members are usually the most reliable source of information regarding their relatives. Author has learned (the hard way) that all genealogical information should be taken with that proverbial 'grain of salt'. There are frequent errors and inconsistencies in the information - it is up to the reader to analyze the information presented and compare it with other reliable sources - e.g. verify with a knowledgeable family member.

The families of Samuel Henderson and Sydney Mayo Head emigrated to Greene County, Alabama in the 1820s where the couple married in November 1838. Samuel (and his brother David) each purchased an 80-acre tract of land on 1Oct1835 located about ten (10) miles southwest of Eutaw, AL. Presumably, the Head family had previously settled in vicinity of this property because Samuel worked to establish his homestead for about three years before he married Sydney Mayo Head (age 18). The couple lived there for less than five (5) years before moving on to Chickasaw County, MS. The remainder of their lives was spent in Mississippi.

This volume (Volume II of V) is organized to maximally assist the individual researcher with descendants of Samuel and Sydney Henderson. As such, the reader should keep the following in mind:

1. Author read somewhere that the Henderson surname was the 13th most popular surname in America during the early 1800s. By 1820, author's research indicates there was likely to be at least one Henderson family in every county in America. The earliest Henderson death in Greene County of which author is aware occurred in 1826 - apparently, he was not one of our 'Alabama Hendersons'. Further, extended families (e.g., our Alabama Hendersons) tended to cluster as neighbors and multiple families emigrated together as they moved westward in the 1800s and early 1900s. Another common practice was to name their children using the same names (e.g., William). Result is that modern researchers are faced with the task of differentiating between multiple first cousins named 'William Henderson' who might have lived in Greene County in the 1840s. In order to cope with this situation, the author adopted practice of identifying an individual by his/her full legal name plus birth and death year (e.g. William Franklin Henderson (1811-1890)). Even that differentiation has proven inadequate in a few cases - in those cases, author had to use actual date of birth or date of death to differentiate between individuals. Worse, author has learned (the hard way) that he MUST also associate an individual with other family members in order to ensure that he has the correct 'William Henderson' - frequently there are multiple Henderson individuals with same name, living in the same area, and have birth/death dates which are in the same year.

2. The book is organized similar to a family tree with Samuel and Sydney Henderson as its starting point (i.e., Paragraph 2.0) and each family unit includes its relationship with this couple. The significant difference with author's approach is that each 'node' in the family tree includes three generations (i.e., children, parents, and both sets of grandparents) of family members. By looking at vital statistics (on a single page) for all three generations simultaneously the researcher can easily perform his/her own 'sanity check' regarding accuracy of the information. P.S., If you have not learned this lesson by now; all information found on genealogical sites (e.g., ancestry.com) and even official census rolls should be taken with that proverbial 'grain of salt' because of the likelihood of errors.

3. Author's career was spent as a systems engineer responsible for design of complex electronic systems. Typically, we were faced with ensuring that a large number of design products were both consistent and timely as we approached a milestone design review. Author became skilled at taking one last overall look (we informally called this review a 'sanity check') at all of our design products considered as a whole. Author performs a similar 'sanity check' on genealogical data by considering all of the vital statistics for three consecutive generations of the family at the same time. All of the names and dates must be consistent - any inconsistency highlights need for further research. This book is organized around such 3-generational family units to enable the reader to perform his/her own version of a 'sanity check'. Author achieved a significant improvement in readability by dedicating (at least) one page to each family unit - unfortunately, the result is a huge book.

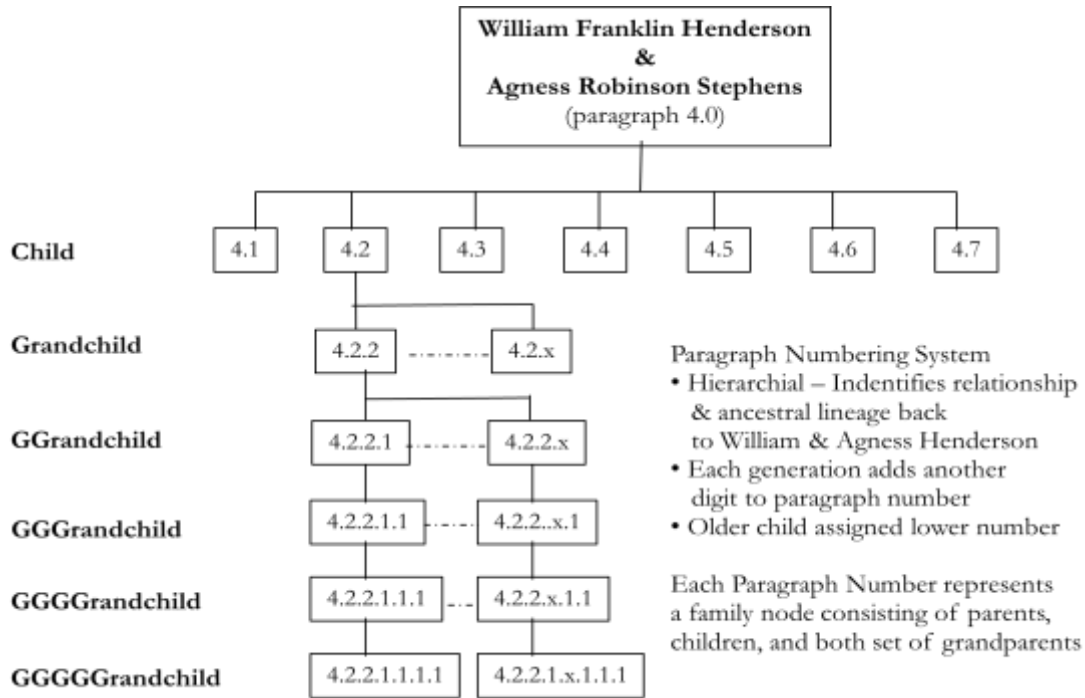

4. A reference book such as this one can never be complete (or 100% accurate). There is always further information (e.g., residence) which could be learned about your parents and grandparents. Also, there will be continuing births, weddings/divorces, and deaths along the way. Author specifically designed this book such that individual reader can update and maintain his/her own version of Henderson family tree as his/her family situation changes. The book is available both as a hardcopy notebook (i.e., one family unit per page) and in digital form (using standard MS software) such that you can easily make needed modifications or additions to your family's node(s). You can also easily print one or more pages and substitute them in the hardcopy version of this book. In this manner, you can maintain your own personal copy of the Henderson family tree.

5. Several families (i.e., Henderson, Stephens, Wardlaw/Wardlow, Logan) lived as neighbors near Abbeville, SC prior to 1820. Members of each of these families emigrated to Greene County, AL in the 1820s - where they again settled as neighbors. Researching Henderson family genealogy often uncovers another relationship between members of these families.

Paragraph Numbering System

Author has identified approximately 125 direct descendants of Samuel and Sydney Henderson. Author estimates there are an average of nine individuals (i.e., 4 grandparents, 2 parents, plus 3 children) associated with each direct descendant - he arbitrarily assigned the name "family node" to this grouping of family members. In order to show relationships among this many people, the author chose to arrange the "family nodes" in a hierarchal fashion as illustrated below. All paragraph numbers were assigned based on hierarchal relationship of the direct Henderson descendant (i.e., Child).

Note: One implication of this hierarchal arrangement is that name of any one individual (e.g. your name) will appear ONLY in one 'branch' (or perhaps 'twig') of the Henderson family tree. This reliance on "family nodes" means that one's name can appear as a grandparent, a parent, or a child only within that individual's close family unit. Tracing lineage of an individual will be as simple as following the paragraph numbers.

Note: This same hierarchal numbering system applies to each sibling's family tree as follows:

- Vol I            Overview of Henderson Family Lineage
- Vol II          Descendants of Samuel Taylor Henderson and Sydney Mayo Head
- Vol III        Dexcendants of David D Henderson and Vianna Nix
- Vol IV        Descendants of William Franklin Henderson and Agness Robinson Stephens
- Vol V        Descendants of Cynthia Henderson and Griffin Cockrell

Interpretation of Family Node Information

Each Henderson family node is documented using the format shown below. At least one page is dedicated to each family node as illustrated by this excerpt from Volume IV.

NOTES		NOTES
Author's Hypotheses: 1) Mr Henderson was a poor Irish immigrant who died in SC in 1820. Evidence: Later Alabama census rolls indicate that families of Samuel, David, and Cynthia could not read or write which would tend to confirm family's poverty. 2) William Franklin Henderson agreed to 7-year indenture contract - probably w/ Benjamin Stephens - in late 1824. He was to receive 80 acres of land in Greene County in Jan1832 - which William purchased in Jan1832. 3) David and Samuel Henderson agreed to 7-year indentured contract - probably w/ Benjamin Stephens - in Sep 1828. They were each to receive 80 acres of land in Greene County in Oct1835 - which each purchased on 1Oct1835. Cynthia may have also agreed to a 7-year indentured contract in return for cash. Both David and Cynthia married in Dec1835.		Family lore says that Widow Henderson with four children migrated from SC to Greene County, AL. Presumption is this migration occurred between 1820+ (when her husband died) and 1830 when the family was listed in the Greene County census. Family lore says the Widow Henderson was born in 1764 but author considers this to be unrealistic. She married and had 4 children between 1803 and 1818, migrated to Alabama in the 1820s, and died in 1845. Suggest her birth was in the 1780-1785 time period. Given birth dates of the four siblings, author suspects there were at least two additional infant deaths about 1809 and 1814.
		Given the family ties to Bethel Baptist Church, author believes that the Widow Henderson was buried in the Old Bethel Baptist Church Cemetery. Her tombstone would have disintegrated with a few decades because of acidity of the soil in that location.

2.0 Samuel Taylor Henderson and Sydney Mayo Head
Child	Marriage	Spouse
Samuel Taylor Henderson	Date: 15Nov1838	Sydney Mayo Head
DOB: 1803	Location: Greene County, AL	DOB: 1820
City/State: South Carolina (likely Abbeville County)	Married by Zachary Logan, JP	City/State: Chester, SC
Residence: 1838 - Greene County, AL		Residence:
Residence: 1842 - Clay County, MS	Children	Residence:
Date of Death: Nov1870	1. Martha Jane Henderson (1840-)	Date of Death:

Father: Unknown	4. William Henderson (1847-)	Father:
Mother: Unknown	5. David C Henderson (1847-)	Mother:
	6. Samuel Newton Henderson (1849-1925)
	7. Nancy Richerson Henderson (1853-1925)

Author's research suggests that Samuel Henderson emigrated from near Abbeville, SC to Greene County, AL in 1827. Apparently, the Head family also emigrated from area of Chester, SC during this same time period and settled in Greene County, AL. Samuel (as well as his mother, brother David, and sister Cynthia) were likely part of the same caravan which brought newlyweds Benjamin Waller Stephens and Margaret Only Wardlaw to Greene County, AL in 1827. Further, author's research indicates that Samuel agreed to a 7-year indentured contract (probably) with Benjamin Waller Stephens in Sep1828. Samuel purchased 80 acres of land (at $1.25 per acre) on 1Oct1835 through the land office at Demopolis. Location was Township 21N, Range2E, Section 6 - which is located about 10 miles southwest of Eutaw, AL.

Samuel Henderson and Sarah Head were married by Zachary Logan, JP in Nov1838 - their marriage occurred about three (3) years after Samuel had purchased his 80-acre homestead. Presumably, this individual is the same Zachary Logan who married Dorothy Stephens and then emigrated with the Stephens, Wardlaw, and Henderson families from Abbeville County, SC to Greene County, AL in 1824. This marriage also implies that the Henderson, Logan, and Head families were neighbors in Greene County, AL in 1838.

Frank Scarborough obituary is confusing. Frank Scarborough (18Aug1954-30Aug2013) was born in Rockledge, Brevard County, FL and died in Winston-Salem, NC. Such dates are consistent with Frank being the husband of Elizabeth Ann Friday. However, his obituary lists five of the siblings listed above as being his siblings. Further, his obituary also cites his wife's name as Lillian Quinn (-), his father's name as Doug, and his mother's name as Carolyn Cook. Further it lists one of his children as 'Mike Dunaj'.

Mother: Sarah A Thrasher (1853-1928)		Mother: Martha Adeline Clark (1860-1943)

Austin married wife #1 Bennie Hobgood (1879-1915) on 2Nov1898 in Webster County, KY. The couple had seven children (i.e., Marlin, Lucille, Alline, Leona, Thelma, Terrence, and Kenneth) with births ranging from 1900 to 1914 while living in District 3, Marshall County, Kentucky. After Bennie died in 1915, Austin moved to Clay County, MS where he met and married Annie Lee Henderson. Upon death, Austin's body was returned to Kentucky where it is buried beside his first wife and mother of his children. Note: When Austin registered for the WWI draft on 9Dec1918, his occupation was listed as farmer and his address was listed as West Point, MS - his next of kin was listed as his mother who lived in Dixon, MS.

1920 census indicates that Annie (age 30) and Cora (age 26) are still single and living at home with Samuel and Sarah Henderson.

1930 census indicates that Terrence (1809-) and Kenneth (1814-) were living with Austin and Annie in West Point, MS. Per 1920 census, Annie (age 30) and Cora (age 26) are still single and living at home with Samuel and Sarah Henderson.

1940 census indicates that Austin was postal carrier for US Post Office; Annie was a seamstress (working from home); and Ruby was a stenographer for the county agent. Ruby Henderson was a niece of Annie.
