Following provided by Milton Henderson (c1990)

William was a member of the Woodmen of the World and obviously he was proud of such as he owned four (4) of their beautiful blue/black cuff links (two sets). The Woodmen was one of the first fraternal benefit societies in the United States and was founded in Omaha, Nebraska in 1890. There were some lodges for the membership and Woodmen were issued certificates of membership which provided for a death benefit (life insurance) and a monument benefit being a unique Woodmen gravestone, so that “no Woodmen shall rest in an unmarked grave.”
