

Hattie Irby Henry

WINNSBORO - Hattie Irby Henry, 99, died Thursday, Aug. 24.

Services conducted by the Rev. Henry Brown were held Monday, Aug. 28 at St. John A.M.E. Church. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Dr. Donald U. Toatley, Calton Toatley, Charles Turner, Jr., Peter Toatley, Joe Edward Henry, and Willie Henry, Jr. Floral bearers were grandchildren.

Born Sept. 1, 1900 in Fairfield County, she was the daughter of the late Gussie Irby and the late Carrie Byrd.

She was a housewife and was a member of St. John A.M.E. Church.

Surviving are three daughters, Alice Wise Henry of Baltimore, MD, Rosetta Toatley of Washington, DC, Mary Louise Turner of Winnsboro; two sons, Willie E. Henry of Columbia and Joseph E. Henry of Winnsboro; one sister, Carrie Colan of Greensboro, NC; a daughter-in-law, Izetta Henry; 40 grandchildren; and a host of great-grandchildren, relatives and friends.

Glovers Memorial Chapel of Winnsboro and Greater Columbia Funeral Service were in charge of the arrangements.

HERALD INFO. 9/7/2000

wl blazer

riners and a resident of innsboro.

They represent 36,000 Caroli-as Shriners in the support of e Shrine Bowl, which since 1937 has matched the best high school players from North and South Carolina at the Shrine Bowl of the Carolinas in Charlotte. The game is played for state pride and to raise funds to assist the Shriners Hospital for children, including the Greenville Unit Hospital.

The Shrine Bowl will be played Dec. 16. A limited number of Shrine Bowl tickets will go on sale soon at Fairfield Central High School.

