

Mrs. Jehad Karriem

Henry-Karriem

WINNSBORO - Voncile Henry and Jehad Karriem were united in marriage on Saturday, July 21 at the Memorial Chapel at Fort Jackson.

The Rev. Danny C. Murphy officiated.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the NCO Club at Fort Jackson.

The bride was given in marriage by Izetta Henry.

The bride wore an ivory sweetheart gown with a detachable train. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies.

Bridesmaids were Monique Douglas, Karen Singletary-Fuller, and Jacqueline Watson, all friends of the bride.

Howard Karriem served as his son's best man.

Ushers were Illya Odom, friend of the groom; Gerard Karriem and Usman Karriem, brothers of the groom; and Tadjuddih Sabree, cousin of the groom.

The bride is the daughter of Izetta Henry and the late Andrew Henry of Winnsboro.

She is a 1987 graduate of Fairfield Central High School, and is employed with the Charleston County School District.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Karriem of Greenbrier.

He is a 1987 graduate of Fairfield Central High School, and is presently employed with Charleston County EMS.

Following a honeymoon to Jamaica, the couple will reside in Charleston.