ST. THOMAS, U.S. VIRGIN ISLANDS - Miss Teyanna D. Williams of Waldorf, Maryland, and Coulter C. Henry, Jr., formerly of Winnsboro, were united in marriage on Thursday, Aug. 23 in St. Thomas.

The ceremony was attended by family and friends.

The bride is presently employed as a personal trainer/nutritionist with Results, Inc., Personal Training of White Plains, MD.

The groom is presently employed as a patent agent with Oliff and Berridge Professional Liability Corporation in Alexandria, VA.

The couple resides in Waldorf.

county, will be one of the stops on the tour. The present church was built in 1861. The Pearson family recorded the Pearson granted extra time to file South Carolina tax returns and to pay any taxes owed, on the same basis as extensions announced by the Internal Revenue Service.

The extension applies to people who reside, or who have a business located in an area damaged in the attacks; people who are assisting in relief efforts; anyone whose business records or tax information was damaged or destroyed in the attacks; victims of the airline crashes; people whose place of employment is located within a presidentially-declared disaster area; or people who have difficulty meeting state tax obligations because of disruptions in the delivery service due to terrorist attacks.
